Cinematic Storytelling The 100 Most Powerful Film Conventions Every Filmmaker Must Know:

Cinematic Storytelling Jennifer Van Sijll, 2005 Dialog is one of the best known and obvious elements in a film But the language of cinema is more subtle and sophisticated than dialog alone From Metropolis to Kill Bill this remarkable reference guide reveals 100 of the most potent storytelling tools of the film medium It demonstrates how master screenwriters and directors depend on cinematic devices to pump up action create characters and energize a motion picture s plot Cinematic Storytelling compresses 100 years of film history outlining the important connection between film technique and storytelling It shows how the purposeful use of film techniques like lighting editing and sound can evoke audience emotions like fear hatred or anger without a word of dialog It demonstrates how character values and themes are expressed cumulatively over time and nonverbally In this the reader is given both the critical tools to better understand modern moviemaking and the creative tools to more fully exploit the dramatic potential of the medium
