Cinnamon Gardens Shyam Selvadurai, 2012-12-04 Set in 1920s Ceylon during the turbulent closing days of colonial rule this evocative story of intertwined lives takes us behind the fragrant gardens and polished surfaces of the elite who reside in a wealthy suburb of Colombo to reveal a world of splintered families conflicted passions and lives destroyed by class hatred Annalukshmi a spirited young schoolteacher finds herself caught between her family's pressures to marry and her own desire for a more independent life Then there is her uncle Balendran whose comfortable life of privilege is rocked by the arrival of Richard a lover from his past Their uneasy reunion re ignites tensions with Balendran's powerful father and threatens all on which Balendran has built his present life Sensual perceptive and wise Cinnamon Gardens is a novel of exceptional achievement an exquisite tapestry of lives South Asian Novelists in English Jaina C. Sanga, 2003-03-30 With the publication of Salman Rushdie's Booker Prize winning novel Midnight's Children in 1981 followed by the unprecedented popularity of his subsequent works the cinematic adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient many other best sellers written by South Asian novelists writing in English have gained a tremendous following This reference is a guide to their lives and writings The volume focuses on novelists born in South Asia who have written and continue to write about issues concerning that region Some of the novelists have published widely while others are only beginning their literary careers The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries on more than 50 South Asian novelists Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the novelist's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Since many of the contributors are personally acquainted with the novelists they are able to offer significant insights The volume closes with a selected bibliography of studies of the South Asian novel in English along with a list of anthologies and periodicals Postcolonial Postmortems Christine Matzke, Susanne Muehleisen, 2006 Recent crime fiction increasingly transcends national boundaries with investigators operating across countries and continents Frequently the detective is a migrant or comes from a transcultural background To solve the crime the investigator is called upon to decipher the meaning's hidden in clues and testimonies that require transcultural forms of understanding For the reader the investigation discloses new interpretive methods and processes of social investigation often challenging facile interpretations of the postcolonial world order Under the rubric postcolonial postmortems this collection of essays seeks to explore the tropes issues and themes that characterise this emergent form of crime fiction But what does the postcolonial bring to the genre apart from the well known and valid discourses of resistance subversion and ethnicity And why postmortems A dissection and medical examination of a body to determine the cause of death the postmortem of the postcolonial not only alludes to the investigation of the victim's remains but also to the body of the individual text and its contexts This collection interrogates literary concepts of postcoloniality and crime from transcultural perspectives in the attempt to offer new critical impulses to the study of crime fiction and postcolonial
