Clybourne Park A Play:

Clybourne Park Bruce Norris, 2012 Clybourne Park spans two generations fifty years apart In 1959 Russ and Bev are selling their desirable two bedroom at a bargain price unknowingly bringing the first black family into the neighborhood borrowing a plot line from Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun and creating ripples of discontent among the cozy white residents of Clybourne Park In 2009 the same property is being bought by a young white couple whose plan to raze the house and start again is met with equal disapproval by the black residents of the soon to be gentrified area Are the issues festering beneath the floorboards actually the same fifty years on Bruce Norris's excruciatingly funny and squirm inducing satire explores the fault line between race and property Clybourne Park is the winner of the 2011 Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the winner of the 2012 Tony Award for Best Play Clybourne Park Bruce Norris, 2015-07-22 Clybourne Park ,

Performing the Role of Francine/Lena in the Play Clybourne Park by Bruce Norris Oluchi Nwokocha, 2015 For this project I created the role of Francine and Lena in the play Clybourne Park by Bruce Norris The play was a co production between the School of Theatre and Dance at the University of Florida and The Hippodrome Theatre in the city of Gainesville The play was previewed on September 3 2014 and September 4 2014 before opening on September 5 2014 and ran for 35 performances Clybourne Park deals with race and socio economic classism over a period of fifty years The first act is set in 1959 and takes a look at what happens when a black family the Youngers from a Raisin in The Sun by Lorraine Hansberry moves into an all white neighborhood from the perspective of the white neighbors and the reverse when a white family moves into the now all black neighborhood in 2009 This paper will document my research explorations and challenges of playing two different characters in the same play in and out of the rehearsal process and throughout the three week production

Downstate Bruce Norris, 2019 A provocative new play from the Pulitzer Prize winning author of Clybourne Park The Contemporary History Play Benjamin Poore, 2024-05-30 Something exciting is happening with the contemporary history play New writing by playwrights such as Jackie Sibblies Drury Samuel Adamson Hannah Khalil Cordelia Lynn and Lucy Kirkwood makes powerful theatrical use of the past but does not fit into critics familiar categories of historical drama In this book Benjamin Poore provides readers with tools to name and critically analyse these changes The Contemporary History Play contends that many history plays are becoming more complex and layered in their aesthetic approaches as playwrights work through the experience of being surrounded by numerous and varied forms of historical representation in the twenty first century For theatre scholars this book offers a means of interpreting how new writing relies on the past and notions of historicity to generate meaning and resonance in the present For playwrights and students of playwriting the book is a guide to the history play s recent past and to the state of the art what techniques and formulas have been popular the tropes that are widely used and how artists have found ways of renewing or overturning established conventions Representing Segregation Brian Norman, Piper Kendrix Williams, 2012-02-01 As a touchstone issue in American history segregation has had an immeasurable impact on the lives of most ethnic groups in the United States Primarily associated with the Jim Crow South and the court cases Plessy v Ferguson 1896 and Brown v Board of Education 1954 segregation comprises a diverse set of cultural practices ethnic experiences historical conditions political ideologies municipal planning schemes and de facto social systems Representing Segregation traces the effects of these practices on the literary imagination and proposes a distinct literary tradition of representing segregation Contributors engage a cross section of writers literary movements segregation practices and related experiences of racial division in order to demonstrate the richness and scope of responses to segregation in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries By taking up the cultural expression of the Jim Crow period and its legacies this collection reorients literary analysis of an important body of African American literature in productive new directions Discourses on Nations and Identities Daniel Syrový, 2021-01-18 The third volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes contributions that focus on the interplay between concepts of nation national languages and individual as well as collective identities Because all literary communication happens within different kinds of power structures linguistic economic political it often results in fascinating forms of hybridity In the first of four thematic chapters the papers investigate some of the ways in which discourses can establish modes of thinking or how discourses are in turn controlled by active linguistic interventions whether in the context of the patriarchy war colonialism or political factions The second thematic block is predominantly concerned with hybridity as an aspect of modern cultural identity and the cultural and linguistic dimensions of domestic life and in society at large Closely related a third series of papers focuses on writers and texts analysed from the vantage points of exile and exophony as well as theoretical contributions to issues of terminology and what it means to talk about transcultural phenomena Finally a group of papers sheds light on more overtly violent power structures mechanisms of exclusion Totalitarianism torture and censorship but also resistance to these forms of oppression In addition to these chapters the volume also collects a number of thematically related group sections from the ICLA congress preserving their original context How I Did It Lawrence

Harbison,2015-03-01 Applause Acting Series For this book Lawrence Harbison has interviewed successful playwrights who have developed relationships with theaters that regularly produce their plays have had at least one major New York production have their plays published by a licensor such as Dramatists Play Service or Samuel French have received commissions and have an agent Harbison asks each of them the same question How did you do it How I Did It features an introduction by Theresa Rebeck and interviews with David Auburn Stephen Belber Adam Bock Bekah Brunstetter Sheila Callaghan John Cariani Eric Coble Jessica Dickey Kate Fodor Gina Gionfriddo Daniel Goldfarb Kirsten Greenidge Rinne Groff Lauren Gunderson Michael Hollinger Rajiv Joseph Greg Kotis Neil LaBute Deborah Zoe Laufer Wendy MacLeod Itamar Moses Bruce Norris Lynn Nottage Aaron Posner Adam Rapp J T Rogers Lloyd Suh Carl Thomas Sharr White and Anna Ziegler A valuable tool for playwrights daunted by the extremely difficult task of getting their work produced as well as to playwriting students How I Did It is full of stories of how it s done The Civil Rights Theatre Movement in New York, 1939-1966 Julie Burrell,2019-03-27 This book argues that African American theatre in the twentieth century represented a cultural front of the civil rights movement Highlighting the frequently ignored decades of the 1940s and 1950s Burrell documents a radical cohort of theatre artists who became critical players in the fight for civil rights both onstage and offstage between the Popular Front and the Black Arts Movement periods The Civil Rights Theatre Movement recovers knowledge of little known groups like the Negro Playwrights Company and reconsiders Broadway hits including Lorraine Hansberry s A Raisin in the Sun showing how theatre artists staged radically innovative performances that protested Jim Crow and U S imperialism amidst a repressive Cold War atmosphere By conceiving of class and gender as intertwining aspects of racism this book reveals how civil rights theatre artists challenged audiences to reimagine the fundamental character of American democracy Power, Prose, and Purse Alison L. LaCroix,Saul Levmore,Martha Craven

Nussbaum,2019 Power Prose and Purse is an edited collection of essays that draw connections between literature economics and law The essays discuss novels that explore the time period between the Industrial Revolution and the Great Depression and analyze the insights that novelists may offer to law and economics while noting the tensions among these paradigms
