Language Learning Strategies in Independent Settings Stella Hurd,Tim Lewis,2008-10-03 Language learning strategies have been a topic of research for roughly three decades Broadly speaking that research has focused on classroom tuition predominantly at secondary level Increasingly however language learning occurs in independent settings whether at distance on Institution Wide Language Programmes IWLPs or in virtual environments Success in independent language learning is achieved by autonomous individuals with a capacity for self regulation Yet we still know relatively little about the specific means they use to learn effectively whether in terms of the affective strategies they employ to sustain motivation the metacognitive strategies required for planning monitoring and evaluating their learning or the specific cognitive strategies applied to difficult learning tasks These are all discussed and evaluated in Language Learning Strategies in Independent Settings Coaching Values and Life Skills through Physical Education and Sports Koon Teck Koh,Tarkington J Newman,Muhammad Shufi Bin Salleh,2024-11-08 This impactful resource guide is for international educators and practitioners involved in Physical Education and Sport PES who want to learn evidence based approaches to the teaching of values and character education Through a systematic approach to teaching and evaluating values and character education this book bridges the gap between theory and practice It offers empirical evidence and strategies to show how values and character can be internalized through carefully designed experiences active participation and regular reinforcement without compromising the time needed to learn sports skills a common concern raised by PE teachers and sports coaches Results from case studies have also revealed that values can be transferred beyond the context of physical education lessons and sports through a collaborative approach and effective communication between teachers coaches and parents Key strategies based on empirical evidence are highlighted in this book It also highlights an Asian perspective on values and life skills training through Physical Education and provides readers with step by step implementation guidelines to simplify some complex strategies in developing values and life skills through PES seamlessly The book provides useful information to anyone engaged in developing young people in and through sport In particular it will be of great value to pre service and in service teachers and coaches for implementing effective strategies to balance teaching sports skills values and life skills effectively in PES

Visual Perception in Children and Adolescents with Visual Impairments Jeff C. Rabin,Corinna M. Bauer ,Karen Harpster,Raelyn Ottenbreit,2025-10-16 Visual perception plays a fundamental role in our understanding of the world around us However for children and adolescents with visual impairments this ability is significantly compromised Understanding the visual perception processes in this population is crucial for their development and overall well being The main goal of this Research Topic is to address the gaps in our understanding of visual perception in children and adolescents with visual impairments We aim to explore the unique challenges they face identify the specific visual processing deficits that may be present and propose innovative approaches to support their visual development By investigating this domain we can enhance our knowledge of how the visual system adapts and develops in the absence of visual input ultimately leading to improved support and intervention strategies for these individuals

Intellectual Property Law and Access to Medicines Srividhya Ragavan,Amaka Vanni,2021-07-28 The history of patent harmonization is a story of dynamic actors whose interactions with established structures shaped the patent regime From the inception of the trade regime to include intellectual property IP rights to the present this book documents the role of different sets of actors states transnational business corporations or civil society groups and their influence on the structures such as national and international agreements organizations and private entities that have caused changes to healthcare and access to medication Presenting the debates over patents trade and the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS Agreement as it galvanized non state and nonbusiness actors the book highlights how an alternative framing and understanding of pharmaceutical patent rights emerged as a public issue instead of a trade or IP issue The book thus offers an important analysis of the legal and political dynamics through which the contest for access to lifesaving medication has been and will continue to be fought In addition to academics working in the areas of international law development and public health this book will also be of interest to policy makers state actors and others with relevant concerns working in nongovernmental and international organizations

Purifying Empire Deana Heath, 2010-06-03 Purifying Empire explores the material cultural and moral fragmentation of the boundaries of imperial and colonial rule in the British Empire in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It charts how a particular bio political project namely the drive to regulate the obscene in late nineteenth century Britain was transformed from a national into a global and imperial venture and then re localized in two different colonial contexts India and Australia to serve decidedly different ends While a considerable body of work has demonstrated both the role of empire in shaping moral regulatory projects in Britain and their adaptation transformation and at times rejection in colonial contexts this book illustrates that it is in fact only through a comparative and transnational framework that it is possible to elucidate both the temporalist nature of colonialism and the political racial and moral contradictions that sustained imperial and colonial regimes
