Cogan, Murray Print, 2013-12-02 This book examines the approach to civic education in six societies located on the Pacific Rim Australia Japan Hong Kong Taiwan Thailand and the US In these scrupulously designed studies the contributors investigate the recent re emergence of civic education in this region Developments such as globalization nationalism and sovereignty have profound effects on how schools make good citizens These essays reveal how definitions of citizenship are contested and revised under such influences and interrogate differences in civic education from nation to nation As societies attempt to strike a balance between obedience and critical thinking schools become the primary site of these transformations Analyzing both educational policy and its implementation these contributors offer a groundbreaking comparative study that grounds civic education historically and politically Local Civics with National Purpose J. Spencer Clark, 2021-02-04 This book examines the development of civic education in the United States through the lives of two teachers at Shortridge High School SHS in Indianapolis around 1900 After situating civic education at the turn of the century the book describes the career of Laura Donnan her influences teaching extracurriculars and civic life through the lens of her unique epistemology shaped by negotiating the gendered ideologies of her era Then the book re-examines Arthur W Dunn s career focusing on his ten years at SHS and the influence of Donnan on his popular community civics curriculum and subsequently the 1916 report The Social Studies in Secondary Education Previous scholars have overlooked Dunn s time at SHS viewing it simply as a stepping stone for the progressive educator s career This book argues that Dunn s time at SHS was pivotal to his career due to influential colleagues primarily Donnan To conclude Clark discusses the implications of Donnan s epistemology in shaping civic education in the United States State Manual of the Courses of Study for the High Schools of Oregon Oregon. Policy-Making in the GCC Neil Quilliam,Mark C. Thompson,2017-09-11 The GCC is a major player in the post 2011 reordering of the Middle East Despite the rise in prominence of individual Gulf states especially Kuwait Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates and the growth of the GCC as a collective entity surprisingly little attention has been paid to the actual mechanics of policy making in the region This book analyses the vital role that institutions are coming to play in shaping policy in the Gulf Arab states The research coincides with two key developments that have given institutions new importance in the policy process the emergence of a new generation of leaders in the Gulf and the era of low oil prices Both developments along with dramatic demographic change have compelled state and citizens to re-evaluate the nature of the social contract that binds them together Contributors assess the changing relationship between state and citizen and evaluate the role that formal and informal institutions play in mediating such change and informing policy The book shows how academic social and economic institutions are responding to the increasingly complex process of decision making where citizens demand better services and further empowerment and states are obliged to seek wider counsel although wanting to retain ultimate authority With contributions from both academics and practitioners this book will be highly relevant for researchers and policymakers alike Journal of Education ,1922 A.L.A. Catalog, 1926 Isabella Mitchell Cooper,Marion Horton,1926 The High School ,1923 Catalogue of high-school and college textbooks Ginn and Company,1911 The Civic Education of American Youth Policy Research Project on Civic Education Policies and Practices,Kenneth W.
