

7 KEYS TO A SUCCESSFUL COLD CALL

AVOID ROBOT VOICE

Avoid monotone, overly scripted speech. Instead start with a smile on your face, a little chuckle and have a good time.

YOUR WORDS MATTER

Opt for inclusive language. For example, instead of stating you wish to "talk to" a potential customer about a topic, which can imply a forthcoming lecture, it is far better to say you wish to "discuss" a business solution.

PLACE YOUR LEAD AT EASE

Relax the potential customer with a friendly conversation. The more comfortable the prospect feels with you, the more receptive they will be towards listening to you.

ESTABLISH A PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP

Be someone who is sympathetic towards the prospect's needs and capable of providing something of value to their business.

USE SOCIAL PROOF TO YOUR ADVANTAGE

A rapid way to build trust is to show how your company has helped similar businesses to be more successful.

AVOID OVERLOADING YOUR LEAD WITH INFORMATION

Focus on a few points for the initial call, present information in organised short chunks and remember to give your prospect time to ask questions.

USE OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS

Once you pitch your product, you want to keep the prospect talking by asking open-ended questions.
