Ramadan 2019:

Handbook of Research on Cultivating Literacy in Diverse and Multilingual Classrooms Neokleous, Georgios, Krulatz, Anna, Farrelly, Raichle, 2020-03-27 Literacy has traditionally been associated with the linguistic and functional ability to read and write. Although literacy as a fundamental issue in education has received abundant attention in the last few decades, most publications to date have focused on monolingual classrooms. Language teacher educators have a responsibility to prepare teachers to be culturally responsive and flexible so they can adapt to the range of settings and variety of learners they will encounter in their careers while also bravely questioning the assumptions they are encountering about multilingual literacy development and instruction. The Handbook of Research on Cultivating Literacy in Diverse and Multilingual Classrooms is an essential scholarly publication that explores the multifaceted nature of literacy development across the lifespan in a range of multilingual contexts. Recognizing that literacy instruction in contemporary language classrooms serving diverse student populations must go beyond developing reading and writing abilities, this book sets out to explore a wide range of literacy dimensions. It offers unique perspectives through a critical reflection on issues related to power, ownership, identity, and the social construction of literacy in multilingual societies. As a resource for use in language teacher preparation programs globally, this book will provide a range of theoretical and practical perspectives while creating space for pre- and in-service teachers to grapple with the ideas in light of their respective contexts. The book will also provide valuable insights to instructional designers, curriculum developers, linguists, professionals, academicians, administrators, researchers, and students.

Muslim Empowerment in Ghana Holger Weiss, 2024-07-22 This book is the first groundwork on Muslim NGOs in contemporary Ghana. It builds upon a database of more than 600 Muslim non-profit associations, foundations, and grass roots organisations whose activities are traced through extensive use of social media. The first part of the book scrutinises the varieties of their activities and operational spaces, their campaigns, and target groups alongside their local, regional, national, and international connections. The second part analyses contemporary debates on infaq, sadaqa, waqf, and zakat as well as Islamic banking and micro-finance schemes for promoting social welfare among Muslim communities in Ghana.

The Political Economy of Egyptian Media Maher Hamoud, 2023-06-01 This book critically analyses the hegemony of Egypt's business and military elites and the private media they own or control. Arguing that this hegemony requires the exercise of power to maintain consent under changing conditions such as the 2011 uprising and the 2013 military coup, the book answers the central question of why and how Egypt's ruling elites control the media. Situated within the interdisciplinary domain of critical political economy (CPE), the book focuses on popular, privately owned newspapers and TV channels and their ownership using a qualitative approach involving fifteen interviews conducted over seven years with key actors and experts in the Egyptian media landscape for unprecedented insight. As the first book on the political economy of Egyptian media, The Political Economy of Egyptian Media serves as a case study and a country profile and will be of appeal to scholars and experts of Middle Eastern studies political sciences media and the political economy of communication among others

Holy Hell Robert Spencer, 2025-11-18 The Shocking Truth About the Islamic View of Non Muslim Women Holy Hell reveals how Islam sanctions the rape and sex slavery of infidel women and how non Muslim officials prefer to deny that fact rather than confront it The extent of the grooming gang scandal in Britain is horrifying beyond measure As many as a million British girls were raped and many were forced into prostitution while British officials turned a blind eye to what was happening The officials were terrified at the prospect of being accused of racism or Islamophobia if they went after the perpetrators for the men who committed these crimes were overwhelmingly Muslim The cover up continues to this day for much the same reason Even those who have dared to speak honestly about the grooming gangs generally stop at noting that they were mostly Pakistani not that they were Muslim Yet these English girls were not victimized because the gangs were Pakistani The gangs were Muslim and did all this because Islamic law allows Muslim men to victimize non Muslim women in this way Nor did it happen in Britain only this phenomenon has played out in other countries that have experienced a recent massive influx of Muslim migrants In this eye opening book Islamic scholar Robert Spencer tells the truths that Western officials don t dare acknowledge that the behavior of the grooming gangs is sanctioned in Islam and until the West faces that the brutalization of women will continue Holy Hell Islam s Abuse of Women
