Ratio Fundamentalis Institutionis Sacerdotalis 1985:

A Journey to Freedom Franco Imoda, 2000 Can psychology and religion engage in constructive dialogue Has psychology a contribution to make in Christian formation These are some of the issues addressed in this volume marking 25 years of the Institute of Psychology of the Gregorian University The twenty articles which make up the work offer essential insights into how psychology and religion can meet and interact constructively at the level of theory and of practice These insights are presented in the context of an overall Christian anthropology which continues to develop and to further refine its practical applications The contributions are divided into four sections theory and method dialogue between psychology and other disciplines applications in different cultures and concrete experiences of applying a psychologically informed Christian anthropology in the educational setting The balanced approach presented in this work makes it both a serious instrument of study and a valuable point of reference for the educator Its constant reference to a Christian conception of the person will help avoid short sighted pragmatism

Gender Complementarity and Christian Personalism Mary Veronica Sabelli, John P. Hittinger, 2025

When in the 1970 s Sister Prudence Allen RSM began to investigate philosophical thought on woman the question was considered to be at best a marginal area for philosophical research Rather it was seen as a sociological anthropological psychological or political issue This book confirms that today partly due to Allen's groundbreaking work the complementarity of man and woman is an important and fruitful area of research in philosophy providing an evaluative framework that enriches and challenges many other disciplines. No one could have foreseen the centrality of her research for questions of gender theory that are in the third decade of the 21st century in the forefront of public attention. In the present volume leading authors in the area of sex gender complementarity reflect upon and further develop various aspects of Allen's research. In 14 original scholarly essays some contributors build upon Allen's project of exploring the concept of woman throughout the history of philosophy. Others explore the work of 20th century philosophers most of them Christian Personalists whom Allen credits with significant influence on the development of integral gender complementarity such as Karol Wojtyła, John Paul II, Jacques Maritain, Edith Stein, Emmanuel Mounier, W. Norris Clarke, SJ and Bernard Lonergan, SJ. Still other contributors consider Marian spirituality, analogies between Benedictine spirituality and the physiological realities of a woman's body during pregnancy, seminary education in the writings of Allen and others and the impact of Allen's work on the real lives of women in families, the Church and professional life. Upon completing her magisterial three volume work The Concept of Woman, Allen passed the baton to a new generation of scholars stating "The next phases will be developed by those who themselves take the argument further and deeper in their own research, writing, living and lecturing." The present volume takes up the baton, carrying Allen's work forward and paying tribute to the lifetime achievement of a great scholar.

Candidates for the Priesthood Anthony Lendakadavil, 1989. Spirituality in Ministerial Formation Andrew D. Mayes, 2009. In recent years theological education and training for both lay and ordained ministry have been reconceived in terms of ministerial formation. But what is the origin of this paradigm and what difference does it actually make to both teachers and learners? This study not only addresses these questions but also offering perspectives from the Eastern Christian traditions and from empirical research uncovers a dynamic role for prayer in the learning process. It explores how different types of prayer have the potential to be a significant integrative, cognitive, healing, empowering influence in ministerial formation and to enable a transformative process of deep learning. It will prove not only to be a reference book for all practitioners in the field of theological education but also a practical workbook for teachers and students as its questions for individual or group use.

challenge present practice and open up new possibilities for the healing of the historic divide between theology and spirituality The book identifies elements for the development of a rich theology of ministerial formation which will enhance and energize the practice of theological education Seeking to re balance training and formation it invites a rethink of current functionalist approaches to professionalized lay and ordained ministry in terms of discovering creative and surprising functions of spirituality within the learning process The book thus has implications for the teaching of spirituality highlighting the need to articulate an integrated spirituality of education It also addresses important aspects of the Church's mission in society and the imperative of resourcing clergy and lay ministers for their engagement with the rising interest in spirituality in today's culture Book Jacket The Pope Speaks ,1994 Includes recent papal letters addresses and other major Church documents Code of Canon Law Annotated Catholic Church, Instituto Martín de Azpilcueta, Universidad de Navarra. C. Ogoko,2007 The question envisioned and pursued in this book is how to discover a dynamic idea that fosters interdenominational initiatives for socio economic political and spiritual empowerment of Nigerian Christians today It proffers solution by using the biblical Pauline message of justification as paradigm This book grapples with the scandalous divisions of the followers of Christ Every Christian needs evangelical repentance We can only grow together in the unity willed by Jesus Christ by growing together in God's love poured into our hearts at our baptism Origins ,2005-05 Lineamenta Catholic Church,Catholic Church.
