Camp All-American, Hanoi Jane, and the High-and-tight Carol Burke, 2004 A folklorist who taught as a civilian professor at the Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland for seven years, Carol Burke analyzes the military as an occupational folk group, arguing that every detail of military culture, from the high and tight haircut to the chants sung in basic training, is laden with significance. Exploring the minute ways that the cult of masculinity persists in all branches of the United States military today, Burke unearths fascinating details and offers eye-opening anecdotes about basic training, military dress and speech, the history of the marching chant, the disdain some veterans still harbor for Jane Fonda, and the colorful and sometimes questionable rituals of military manhood. Postulating that culture is made, not born, Burke urges the military to consciously change its policy of gendered apartheid so it can evolve into the gender, race and sexuality neutral democratic institution it needs to be. 50 Training Tips for Air Rifle and Air Pistol Michael Beutel, 2024-05-16 Immerse yourself in the world of accurate shooting with 50 training tips for air rifle and air pistol.
