The contributions to this Festschrift honouring the distinguished Irish musicologist Harry White on his sixtieth birthday have wide repercussions and span a broad timeframe But for all its variety this volume is built around two axes on the one hand attention is focussed on the history of music and literature in Ireland and the British Isles and on the other topics of the German and Austrian musical past In both cases it reflects the particular interest of a scholar whose playful sometimes unconventional way of approaching his subject is so refreshing and time and again leads to innovative surprising insights It also reflects a scholar who for all the broadening of his perspectives that has taken place over the years has always adhered to the strands of his scholarly preoccupations that have become dear to him the music of the Austro Italian Baroque and Irish musical culture first and foremost An international cast of authors announces the sustaining influence of Harry White s wide ranging research Professor Dr Thomas Hochradner Chair of the Department of Musicology University of Music and Dramatic Arts Mozarteum Salzburg

We Are Music: An Existential Journey Toward Infinity John Stephen Sharpley, 2024-02-15 What is music Modern society has come to view music largely as entertainment and commodity In response We Are Music An Existential Journey Toward Infinity provides the reader with a holistic starting point Music has unlimited potential to transform and enlighten and is only impeded when bound by materialism physicalism and reductionism We Are Music is an attempt to bring music back to the core of humanity as an agent of positive empowerment self actualization and beyond Embracing interconnectivity music is more deeply experienced alongside the arts science social sciences math philosophy history and above all spirituality An endless spiral self perception and identity can be vastly expanded if not questioned and transcended Music is an infinite field and any attempt to define and describe it is problematically finite and consequently limited Herein lies the impossibility of the book which both excites and disturbs the paradox of being and not being A roadmap for music lovers toward self realization We Are Music is for those who desire to delve deeper into the power and illusion of self through music

Music Performance in Higher Education Helen Julia Minors, Stefan Östersjö, Gilvano Dalagna, Jorge Salgado

Correia, 2024-05-27 Higher Music Performance Education as taught and learned in universities and conservatoires in Europe is undergoing transformation Since the nineteenth century the master apprentice pedagogical model has dominated creating a learning environment that emphasises the development of technical skills rather than critical and creative faculties This book contributes to the renewal of this field by being the first to address the potential of artistic research in developing student centred approaches and greater student autonomy This potential is demonstrated in chapters illustrating artistic research projects that are embedded within higher music education courses across Europe with examples ranging from instrumental tuition and ensemble work to the development of professional employability skills and inclusive practices Bringing together diverse and experienced voices working within Higher Music Education but often also as professional performers this edited collection pairs critical reflection with artistic insight to present new approaches to curricula for teaching interpretation and performance It calls for greater collaboration between Higher Education and professional music institutions to create closer bonds with music industries and thereby improve students career opportunities Teaching Music Performance in Higher Education will appeal to scholars performers teachers but also students whose interests centre on innovative practices in conservatoires and music departments Basic Contrapuntal Techniques H. Bach's Art of Fugue and Musical Offering Matthew Dirst, 2024 The initial volume in a series of American Bach Society Guides Bach's Art of Fugue and Musical Offering is a comprehensive study of two closely related masterworks of the late Baroque fugal style This compact guide intended for practitioners music scholars and a general readership summarizes a considerable body of knowledge about these famously cerebral collections in an engaging and accessible style Bach specialist and keyboard player Matthew Dirst explains the Art of Fugue and Musical Offering's idiosyncratic musical language while reviewing how both projects took shape during Bach's final decade They reflect Bach's lifelong fascination with learned counterpoint as demonstrated in elaborate series of fugues and canons in both and in an unusually intricate trio sonata in the latter Dirst provides commentary on individual movements and groups of pieces and on the historical reception of this music including its impact on other disciplines Recurring themes include Bach's diligent exploration of contrapuntal types and techniques his embrace of musical games and his creative assimilation of diverse musical styles

Public Library. Music Division,2004 Tonal Counterpoint Walter Raymond Spalding,2015-06-16 Excerpt from Tonal Counterpoint Studies in Part Writing 1 The first requisite for the student who has just finished the study of harmony is the power to look at music horizontally Heretofore he has either built up harmonies on a given bass or placed harmonies below a melody in the soprano To form correct chords and to connect them in a grammatical and fairly agreeable way has taken other voices individually and in its relation to the other voices is chiefly to be considered The eye must follow each part throughout its range and the endeavor must be directed toward the formation of a good flowing melody 2 A Second point of difference between the study of harmony and counterpoint is this that whereas the melody has heretofore always been either in the bass or in the soprano nothing is more common in free part writing than to find the melody is so placed there is implied in four part writing the power to invent a bass which shall be good both harmonically and melodically and a melodious interesting soprano besides one inner part At the same time these voices must be so planned that the harmonic background outlined by the notes sounded together on the strong beats shall be natural and satisfactory About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
