Practice Made Perfect Marsha L. Heinke, 2014-05-14 Confessions of a Reformission Rev. Mark Driscoll, 2009-05-26 This is the story of the birth and growth of Seattle s innovative Mars Hill Church one of America s fastest growing churches located in one of America s toughest mission fields It s also the story of the growth of a pastor the mistakes he s made along the way and God s grace and work in spite of those mistakes Mark Driscoll s emerging missional church took a rocky road from its start in a hot upstairs youth room with gold shag carpet to its current weekly attendance of thousands With engaging humor humility and candor Driscoll shares the failures frustrations and just plain messiness of trying to build a church that is faithful to the gospel of Christ in a highly post Christian culture In the telling he s not afraid to skewer some sacred cows of traditional contemporary and emerging churches Each chapter discusses not only the hard lessons learned but also the principles and practices that worked and that can inform your church

s ministry no matter its present size The book includes discussion questions and appendix resources After reading a book like this you can never go back to being an inwardly focused church without a mission Even if you disagree with Mark about some of the things he says you cannot help but be convicted to the inner core about what it means to have a heart for those who don't know Jesus Dan Kimball author The Emerging Church will make you laugh cry and get mad school you shape you and mold you into the right kind of priorities to lead the church in today's messy world Robert Webber Northern Seminary

Koltai, 2016-08-30 Joblessness is the root cause of the global unrest threatening American security Fostering entrepreneurship is the remedy The combined weight of American diplomacy and military power cannot end unrest and extremism in the Middle East and other troubled regions of the world Steven Koltai argues Koltai says an alternative approach would work investing in entrepreneurship and reaping the benefits of the jobs created through entrepreneurial startups From 9 11 and the Arab Spring to the self proclaimed Islamic caliphate instability and terror breed where young people cannot find jobs Koltai marshals evidence to show that joblessness not religious or cultural conflict is the root cause of the unrest that vexes American foreign policy and threatens international security Drawing on Koltai s stint as senior adviser for Entrepreneurship in Secretary Hillary Clinton s State Department and his thirty year career as a successful entrepreneur and business executive Peace through Entrepreneurship argues for the significant elevation of entrepreneurship in the service of foreign policy not rural microfinance or mercantile trading but the scalable stuff of Silicon Valley and Sam Walton generating the vast majority of new jobs in economies large and small Peace through Entrepreneurship offers a nonmilitary long term solution at a time of disillusionment with Washington s big development approach to unstable and underdeveloped parts of the world and when the new normal is fear of terrorist attacks against Western targets beheadings in Syria and jihad Extremism will not be resolved by a war on terror The answer Koltai shows is stimulating entrepreneurial economic opportunities for the virtually limitless supply of desperate unemployed young men and women leading lives of endless economic frustration
