Sex Difference in Christian Theology Megan K. DeFranza, 2015-05-08 Charts a faithful theological middle course through complex sexual issues. How different are men and women? When does it matter to us or to God? Are male and female the only two options? In Sex Difference in Christian Theology, Megan DeFranza explores such questions in light of the Bible, theology, and science. Many Christians entrenched in culture wars over sexual ethics are either ignorant of the existence of intersex persons or avoid the inherent challenge they bring to the assumption that everybody is born after the pattern of either Adam or Eve. DeFranza argues from a conservative theological standpoint that all people are made in the image of God: male, female, and intersex, and that we must listen to and learn from the voices of the intersexed among us.

The Metaphysics of Becoming Thomas Padiyath, 2014-08-22 This study attempts to elucidate a possible meeting point of the traditions of Eastern and Western metaphysical thinking. In discussing Whitehead's and Aurobindo's views on being and becoming, it seeks the possibility of a better engagement between the East and the West in the light of the philosophical insights. It is an initiation into the Sitz im Leben of Whitehead's philosophy and his general thought pattern. It carries a perceptive analysis to show the clear primacy of Becoming or Process in Whitehead that extends even to the Divine. It also highlights Aurobindo as a unique Indian Philosopher who articulated Indian thought in Western categories. He was able to integrate the evolutionary theory of the West with the Indian understanding of becoming The relationship between God and Creativity and Sachchidananda and the Supermind is studied within the context of Enlightenment and Modernity and the way of doing philosophy in the West and in the East The Great Conversation Norman Melchert, 2001-06-01 The World as Idea Charles P.
