

The Crucible Act 2 Study Questions

It's been seven months since the affair between John and Abigail ended, and tension continues to hang over John and Elizabeth's relationship. Give two examples from early in the scene where John appears to be trying to make peace and please his wife. - 1. he says her rabbit soup is greatly seasoned to boost her confidence.

2. He also says if the crop is good ill by George Jacobs that heifer. To make her happy

John says, "It's winter in here yet." Explain the double-meaning of this line. - inside the house is really bland so he wants the newly bloomed flowers of the transformation of winter to spring to be brought in the home. Also, the attitudes between John and Elizabeth Proctor are still suffering the consequences of his past actions.

When they're speaking alone about Abigail, Elizabeth catches John in a lie. What's the lie? Why does this make her lose all faith in her husband? - he was in a room alone with Abby talking about the night in the woods. This makes Elizabeth lose all faith in John because he told Elizabeth that night had nothing to do with witchcraft in a crowd of people. But then he later exposes to her that she was talking to him alone in Betty Parris' room

Elizabeth suspects that her husband is not entirely over his warm feeling for Abigail. Is she right or wrong? Look back over the exchange between Abigail and John in Act 1 and give evidence to support your answer. - she is right. He turned Abigail away one time in Rev. Parris's house but he also did not deny to Abby that she sees him out of her window at night watching her.

It's been 8 days since Rev. Hales' arrival and 39 people have been arrested as suspected witches. Tonight we learn that Goody Osburn has been convicted and will hang, yet Sarah Good who confessed, will be spared and sent to jail instead of being hanged. What "evidence" led to Sarah Good's confession? - she did not want to die and going to jail would be better than dying.

John says the promise that a stallion gives a mare I gave Abigail yet Elizabeth knows that there is a promise made in any bed. What does Elizabeth understand about young women like Abigail that John does not? - she understands Abby because she was a young woman once and she can understand Abby's feeling attitudes and lust-filled mind about John.

Explain why golden candlesticks hurt John Proctor's prayer. - it hurts John Proctor's prayer because he is having to pay with his own money for these golden candlesticks with his own money for a minister he believes has nothing to do with Christ our Lord.

What's the irony of John's recitation of the ten commandments? - he could not speak about the last one "adultery" because he committed it and he was ashamed of saying this.
