From publisher description The Sainte-Chapelle and the Construction of Sacral Monarchy Meredith Cohen,2014-11-24

This book offers a novel perspective on one of the most important monuments of French Gothic architecture the Sainte Chapelle constructed in Paris by King Louis IX of France between 1239 and 1248 especially to hold and to celebrate Christ s Crown of Thorns Meredith Cohen argues that the chapel s architecture decoration and use conveyed the notion of sacral kingship to its audience in Paris and in greater Europe thereby implicitly elevating the French king to the level of suzerain and establishing an early visual precedent for the political theories of royal sovereignty and French absolutism By setting the chapel within its broader urban and royal contexts this book offers new insight into royal representation and the rise of Paris as a political and cultural capital in the thirteenth century Financing Cathedral Building in the Middle Ages Wim

Vroom,2025-10-01 This first comprehensive overview of the process of commissioning and financing the construction of cathedrals in the Middle Ages reveals a financing system almost as monumental as the cathedrals themselves Here we follow the historian on a fascinating examination of construction accounts and other sources extant but never so minutely explored bringing the bishop and the chapter to account as it were The book is divided into two parts The first gives a broad overview of the resources on which medieval commissioners could draw including contributions from the bishop chapter sovereign city and above all the faithful of the diocese in which the cathedral was erected The second part is a case study of the financing of construction at Utrecht Cathedral whose archives are among the best preserved in Europe followed by a brief discussion of the financing of several other cathedral building projects throughout Europe and of the church of St Peter s in Rome
