This updated fourth edition includes an entirely new section devoted to a complete analysis of the film adaptation of The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo along with many in depth discussions of important films such as Citizen Kane and Silence of the Lambs. The chapter on television integrates a major expansion distinguishing between television in the digital era of the convergence of the entertainment and technology industries in comparison to the era of broadcast analogue television. The final chapter places film within the current context of digital culture, globalization and the powerful rise of China in film production and exhibition. The authors clearly present various methodologies for analyzing movies and illustrate them with detailed examples and images from a wide range of films from cult classics to big budget award winning movies. This helps viewers see new things in movies and also better understand and explain why they like some better than others.

Thinking About Movies: Watching, Questioning, Enjoying Fourth Edition is ideal for film students immersed in the study of this important contemporary medium and art form as well as students and readers who have never taken a class on cinema before.

The Great Gatsby in the Classroom David Dowling, 2006 Provides specific teaching strategies for each chapter and classroom tested oral written drawing and dramatic activities that help students make meaning out of the novel and engage them in its thematic and affective elements.

Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2020-12-28 Now in its fourth edition this popular textbook introduces prospective and practicing English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms. This new edition broadens its focus to cover important topics such as critical race theory, perspectives on teaching fiction, nonfiction and drama, the integration of digital literacy and teacher research for ongoing learning and professional development. It underscores the value of providing students with a range of different critical approaches and tools for interpreting texts. It also addresses the need to organize literature instruction around topics and issues of interest to today's adolescents. By using authentic dilemmas and contemporary issues, the authors encourage preservice English teachers and their instructors to raise and explore inquiry based questions that center on the teaching of a variety of literary texts, both classic and contemporary, traditional and digital.

New to the Fourth Edition: Expanded attention to digital tools, multimodal learning and teaching online. New examples of teaching contemporary texts. Expanded discussion and illustration of formative assessment. Revised response activities for incorporating young adult literature into the literature curriculum. Real world examples of student work to illustrate how students respond to the suggested strategies. Extended focus on infusing multicultural and diverse literature in the classroom. Each chapter is organized around specific questions that preservice teachers consistently raise as they prepare to become English language arts teachers. The authors model critical inquiry throughout the text by offering authentic case narratives that raise important considerations of both theory and practice. A companion website, a favorite of English education instructors, <http://teachingliterature.pbworks.com> provides resources and enrichment activities, inviting teachers to consider important issues in the context of their current or future classrooms.

Robert McMahon, 2002 Details a different system for teaching classic and contemporary literature in high school that is designed to keep students interested in what they are learning and understand the material Joycean Elements in F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby Barney Tanner, Bernard R. Tanner, 2007 This research monograph argues that Scott Fitzgerald consciously used a variety of Joycean devices in THE GREAT GATSBY and these devices were the result of close readings of Joyce's DUBLINERS and ULYSSES The monograph breaks new ground in Fitzgerald scholarship and has implications for Joyceans as well The author's research was first begun under the mentorship of Professor Wallace Stegner and has lasted over 35 years Tanner also benefited from a correspondence with Edmund Wilson prior to Wilson's death This study sets out to prove that Fitzgerald modeled numerous elements of GATSBY on elements found in Joyce's ULYSSES FSF imitated Joyce's use of the first letter in each of the parts of ULYSSES There Joyce alluded to two matters 1 the first names of his characters and 2 the logical steps of a syllogism Fitzgerald enriched this device He developed three parts in his novel 3 3 3 and used the first and last letters of each of his 9 chapters for two purposes to repay in a bold and playful way his debt to Joyce and to honor Ernest Renan famed for his LIFE OF JESUS and a source of burlesque techniques employed in Gatsby This is just one example of a number of research issues raised by Tanner a number new to Fitzgerald scholarship Other chapters deal with FSF imitation of Joyce's Araby in Fitzgerald's story Absolution a precursor to Gatsby sources for Christian allusions and direct allusions to ULYSSES the shadowing and doubling of characters patterns of imagery and numeracy in topics and theme The work contains two appendices including a significant comparison of Trimalchio and THE GREAT GATSBY
