Fantasy Brian Attebery, 2022-06-30 An exciting and accessible study of the genre of fantasy One of the dominant modes of storytelling in the twenty first century fantasy can mirror contemporary experiences and convey our anxieties and longings better than any representation of the merely real It is the lie that speaks truth This book addresses two central questions about fantastic storytelling first how can it be meaningful if it doesn't claim to represent things as they are and second what kind of change can it make in the world How can a form of storytelling that alters physical laws and denies facts about the past be at the same time a source of insight into human nature and the workings of the world What kind of social political cultural intellectual work does fantasy perform in the world the world of the reader that is not that of the characters Focusing on various aspects of fantastic world building and story creation in classic and contemporary fantasy from the use of symbolic structures to the way new stories incorporate bits of significance from earlier texts this book shows how fantasy allows writers such as Michael Cunningham Hans Christian Anderson Helene Wecker C S Lewis Ursula K Le Guin Nnedi Okorafor Nalo Hopkinson George MacDonald Aliette de Bodard and Patricia Wrightson to test new modes of understanding and interaction and thus to rethink political institutions social practices and models of reality

The New Utopian Politics of Ursula K. Le Guin's The Dispossessed Laurence Davis, Peter G. Stillman, 2005-01-01 The Dispossessed has been described by political thinker Andre Gorz as The most striking description I know of the seductions and snares of self managed communist or in other words anarchist society To date however the radical social cultural and political ramifications of Le Guin's multiple award winning novel remain woefully under explored Editors Laurence Davis and Peter Stillman right this state of affairs in the first ever collection of original essays devoted to Le Guin's novel Among the topics covered in this wide ranging international and interdisciplinary collection are the anarchist ecological post consumerist temporal revolutionary and open ended utopian politics of The Dispossessed The book concludes with an essay by Le Guin written specially for this volume in which she reassesses the novel in light of the development of her own thinking over the past 30 years
