Doing Philosophy Theodore Schick, Jr., 2023-02-02 Epistemic Thought Experiments and Intuitions Manhal Hamdo, 2023-06-28 This work investigates intuitions nature demonstrating how philosophers can best use them in epistemology First the author considers several paradigmatic thought experiments in epistemology that depict the appeal to intuition He then argues that the nature of thought experiment generated intuitions is not best explained by an a priori Platonism Second the book instead develops and argues for a thin conception of epistemic intuitions The account maintains that intuition is neither a priori nor a posteriori but multi dimensional It is an intentional but non propositional mental state that is also non conceptual and non phenomenal in nature Moreover this state is individuated by its progenitor namely the relevant thought experiment Third the author provides an argument for the evidential status of intuitions based on the correct account of the nature of epistemic intuition The suggestion is the fitting ness approach intuition alone has no epistemic status Rather intuition has evidentiary value as long as it fits well with other pieces into a whole namely the pertinent thought experiment Finally the book addresses the key challenges raised by supporters of anti centrality according to which philosophers do not regard intuition as central evidence in philosophy To that end the author responds to them showing that they fail to affect the account of intuition developed in this book This text appeals to students and researchers working in epistemology

Early Childhood Education in the 21st Century Hani Yulindrasari,Vina Adriany,Yeni Rahmawati,Fonny Hutagalung,Sarita Gálvez,Ade Gafar Abdullah,2019-09-24 Providing a selection of papers presented at ICECE 2018 a biennial conference organised by the Early Childhood Education Program Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia The conference s general theme was Finding Alternative Approaches Theories Frameworks and Practices of Early Childhood Education in the 21th Century Distinct from other periods of time the 21st century is characterised by so much knowledge easy to access but hard to grasp borderless and hyper connected society mediated by the internet high competitiveness not only within a country but across countries high mobility and widening economic discrepancy as neoliberalism has strengthened its influence on every sector of human life The children of today will face many things that have not yet been invented or discovered sometimes beyond expectations Scholars and teachers of early childhood education need to be aware of these astonishing changes The way children and childhood are seen cannot stay the same and so does the way children of this century are educated The conference opened a discussion about finding alternative approaches theories and best practices of early childhood education for a rapidly changing and globalised society

Joss Whedon as Philosopher Dean Kowalski,2017-11-29

In this book Dean Kowalski argues that filmmakers can do philosophy when creating a fictional narrative film and utilizes a careful and extensive analysis of Joss Whedon s fictive creations Buffy the Vampire Slayer Angel Firefly Dollhouse and The Cabin in the Woods among others to establish this thesis This book appeals to many different readers For the many admirers of Whedon s fictive creations it offers one of the most comprehensive analyses of his corpus It reprises many examples and dialogue passages from the far corners of the so called Whedonverse You ll get a chance to re experience your favorite dramatic moments and think about them in novel ways For popular culture scholars it offers illustrations of various philosophical theories explains how those theories pertain to relevant data points in Whedon s oeuvre and assesses whether or to what extent they have real world application For philosophers of film it explicates crucial issues germane to the film as philosophy debate but also expands them to television all in the attempt to demonstrate why it is that Whedon ought to be included among those rare filmmakers who engage the philosophical process via their artistry

Philosophical Essays concerning Human Families Stanley Vodraska, 2014-08-01 In Philosophical Essays concerning Human Families Stanley Vodraska describes a principle of moral practice that he calls the principle of familial preference In ordinary circumstances a moral agent should persistently provide preferential treatment to members of his or her family and should not pursue the good of extra familial persons to such an extent as to disadvantage or neglect his or her family The essays uncover this principle in human practices of love or charity mercy justice and prudence and measure its weight in religion moral philosophy and the political order Report of the Commissioner of Education Made to the Secretary of the Interior for the Year ... with Accompanying Papers United States.
