

Secrets of Millionaire mind

In his book Think Like a Winner, Dr. Walter Doyle Staples identifies 10 key goal-setting principles:

- 1. Identify a major goal that is important to you and sufficiently challenging. It should be a goal that can somehow be measured and quantified.
- 2. Choose an exact date by which you wish to accomplish this goal.
- 3. Think about and explore various ways you could achieve this goal.
- 4. Decide upon a detailed action plan to follow. These are to be actions that will help you acquire necessary knowledge, develop additional skills, and meet people that can assist you in achieving your goal. If you aren't sure of which actions to take, just decide as best as you can.
- 5. Compile a list of the possible obstacles you will have to overcome in order to reach your chosen goal or destination.
- 6. List the major benefits you will receive upon reaching this goal.
- 7. Form a master plan by writing down your answers to the previous six principles.
- 8. Once in the morning and once at night, read your master plan, out loud, everyday, until you achieve your goal.
- 9. As you read these statements, see yourself as already achieving your goal. Really be able to believe you've accomplished it. What would it feel like? What would it look like?
- 10. Whether you're ready or not, begin to implement your plan. If you don't yet feel ready, don't worry, you soon will!
