Game Andrew M. Greeley, 2025-08-22 Andrew M Greeley the phenomenally popular novelist and priest is best known and loved for his understated Catholic morality and compassionate understanding of human foibles In The God Game now available in a brand new trade paperback edition Father Greeley takes a new and fascinating twist on an old cliché What if by using a sophisticated computer game with a healthy dose of heavenly intervention you really could play God What if you actually had the power to control other people's lives This is the dilemma that faces our hero who quickly finds that being given the kingdom the power and the glory is dangerous but addictive The troubles of the people he sees flashing on his computer screen are all too real and his troubles are just beginning At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Tradition and Fantasy in the Tales of Reb Nahman of Bratslav Ora Wiskind-Elper, 2012-02-01 One of the most radically innovative of Hasidic masters Reb Nahman of Bratslav transformed images and concepts basic to Jewish thought into new and compelling forms Tradition and Fantasy in the Tales of Reb Nahman of Bratslav uses comparative literary criticism a range of Hasidic commentary and original exegesis of the source texts to bring the complex artistry of Reb Nahman's thought to light making it accessible to a wider audience Dreaming, Religion and Society in Africa M.C. Jedrej, Rosalind Shaw, 2023-11-20 The contributors to this investigation of dreaming in a diversity of African cultures and settings have each approached the matter with a respect for an indigenous discourse which does not necessarily subscribe to Western evaluations of the objective and subjective The matter of dreaming is not so much a psychological constant as ultimately sociological and historical Dream discourse as a strategy deploys contingencies in the elaboration of social relationships and the defence restoration and promotion of identities Dreaming is therefore prominent in such critical settings as sickness and healing artistic inspiration and craftwork election to religious office conversion to Islam or Christianity Dreaming and the Imagination Matthew D. Newsom, 2025-04-01 Of all the human behaviors anthropologists consider perhaps the most conceptually challenging are those that cannot be directly observed This volume draws from rich ethnographic data to offer theoretical and methodological tools for mapping the intersections between two such behaviors dreaming and imagination Although Western perspectives tend to cast these as personal experiences contained within individual minds each contributor explores diverse cultural and historical contexts to demonstrate how these behaviours are always in some sense cultural and influenced by social others The cross cultural approach suggests theoretical flexibility and expands the study of imagination across multiple disciplines Tropological Thought and Action Marko Živković, Jamin Pelkey, James W. Fernandez, 2021-01-14 From twilight in the Himalayas to dream worlds in the Serbian state this book provides a unique collection of anthropological and cross cultural inquiry into the power of rhetorical tropes and their relevance to the formation and analysis of social thought and action through a series of ethnographic essays offering in depth studies of the human imagination at work and play around the world Film as Religion John Lyden, 2003-06 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2003 Film as Religion argues that popular films perform a religious
