Drown Junot Díaz:

Drown Junot Díaz, 1997-07-01 From the beloved and award winning author Junot Díaz a spellbinding saga of a family's journey through the New World A coming of age story of unparalleled power Drown introduced the world to Junot Díaz's exhilarating talents It also introduced an unforgettable narrator Yunior the haunted brilliant young man who tracks his family's precarious journey from the barrios of Santo Domingo to the tenements of industrial New Jersey and their epic passage from hope to loss to something like love Here is the soulful unsparing book that made Díaz a literary sensation Junot Díaz and the Decolonial Imagination Monica Hanna, Jennifer Harford Vargas, José David Saldívar, 2015-12-17 The first sustained critical examination of the work of Dominican American writer Junot Díaz this interdisciplinary collection considers how Díaz's writing illuminates the world of Latino cultural expression and trans American and diasporic literary history Interested in conceptualizing Díaz's decolonial imagination and his radically re-envisioned world the contributors show how his aesthetic and activist practice reflect a significant shift in American letters toward a hemispheric and planetary culture They examine the intersections of race Afro Latinidad gender sexuality disability poverty and power in Díaz's work Essays in the volume explore issues of narration language and humor in The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao the racialized constructions of gender and sexuality in Drown and This Is How You Lose Her and the role of the zombie in the short story Monstro Collectively they situate Díaz's writing in relation to American and Latin American literary practices and reveal the author's activist investments The volume concludes with Paula Moya's interview with Díaz Contributors Glenda R Carpio Arlene Dvila Lyn Di Iorio Junot Díaz Monica Hanna Jennifer Harford Vargas Ylce Irizarry Claudia Milian Julie Avril Minich Paula M L Moya Sarah Quesada Jos David Saldívar Ramón Saldívar Silvio Torres Saillant Deborah R Vargas Junot Díaz José David Saldívar, 2022-08-29 In Junot Díaz On the Half Life of Love Jos David Saldívar offers a critical examination of one of the leading American writers of his generation He explores Díaz's imaginative work and the diasporic and immigrant world he inhabits showing how his influences converged in his fiction and how his writing especially his Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao radically changed the course of US Latinx literature and created a new way of viewing the decolonial world Saldívar examines several aspects of Díaz's career from his vexed relationship to the literary aesthetics of Whiteness that dominated his MFA experience and his critiques of the colonialities of power race and gender in culture and societies of the Dominican Republic United States and the Americas to his use of the science fiction imaginary to explore the capitalist zombification of our planet Throughout Saldívar shows how Díaz's works exemplify the literary currents of the early twenty-first century Hispanic-American Writers, New Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of critical essays analyzing modern Hispanic American writers including Junot Díaz Pat Mora and Rudolfo Anaya American Short Story since 1950 Kasia Boddy, 2010-08-31 The American Short Story since 1950 offers a reappraisal and contextualisation of a critically underrated genre during a particularly rich period in its history It offers new readings of important stories by key writers including Flannery O'Connor, John Cheever, Donald Barthelme, Raymond Carver, Lorrie Moore, and Grace Paley. These readings are related throughout to the various contexts in which stories are written and published, including creative writing schools, story writing handbooks, mass market, and little magazines.

The Stories of Junot Díaz Luis Fernando Marin, 2016
 This thesis examines how Junot Díaz creates and constructs his literary alter ego and narrator Yunió de las Casas and examines the social and cultural aspects such as race, ethnicity, and gender that condition or influence Yunió's construction. I argue that Díaz uses the short story as a subversive genre and modernist narrative techniques such as shifts in space, time, and focalization to reflect Yunió's diasporic, fragmented subjectivity. My analysis includes narratological and generic readings of Drown and This is how you lose her with a brief look at The brief wondrous life of Oscar Wao, paying particular attention to Yunió as narrator. Finally, this thesis traces Yunió's construction and development through Junot Díaz's narratives, and this mapping of Yunió's identity explores race, ethnicity, masculinity, and gender as it relates to heteronormative Dominicanidad.

Handbook of the American Short Story Erik Redling, Oliver Scheiding, 2022-01-19
 The American short story has always been characterized by exciting aesthetic innovations and an immense range of topics. This handbook offers students and researchers a comprehensive introduction to the multifaceted genre with a special focus on recent developments due to the rise of new media. Part I provides systematic overviews of significant contexts ranging from historical, political backgrounds, short story theories developed by writers, print and digital culture to current theoretical approaches and canon formation. Part II consists of 35 paired readings of representative short stories by eminent authors charting major steps in the evolution of the American short story from its beginnings as an art form in the early nineteenth century up to the digital age. The handbook examines historically, methodologically, and theoretically the coming together of the enduring narrative practice of compression and concision in American literature. It offers fresh and original readings relevant to studying the American short story and shows how the genre performs American culture.

Symbolism 17: Latina/o Literature Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2017-10-10
 The complex nature of globalization increasingly requires a comparative approach to literature in order to understand how migration and commodity flows impact aesthetic production and expressive practices. This special issue of Symbolism, an International Journal of Critical Aesthetics, explores the trans-American dimensions of Latina/o literature in a trans-Atlantic context. Examining the theoretical implications suggested by the comparison of the global North/global South dynamics of material and aesthetic exchange, this volume highlights emergent Latina o authors texts and methodologies of interest in for comparative literary studies In the essays literary scholars address questions of the transculturation translation and reception of Latina o literature in the United States and Europe In the interviews emergent Latina o authors speak to the processes of creative writing in a transnational context This volume suggests how the trans American dialogues found in contemporary Latina o literature elucidates trans Atlantic critical dialogues

U.S. Latino Literature Margarite Fernández Olmos, Harold Augenbraum, 2000-09-30 In the past ten years literature by U S Latinos has gained an extraordinary public currency and has engendered a great deal of interest among educators Because of the increase in numbers of Latinos in their classrooms teachers have recognized the benefits of including works by such important writers as Sandra Cisneros Julia Alvarez and Rudolfo Anaya in the curriculum Without a guide introducing courses on U S Latino literature or integrating individual works into the general courses on American Literature can be difficult for the uninitiated While some critical sources for students and teachers are available none are dedicated exclusively to this important body of writing To fill the gap the editors of this volume commissioned prominent scholars in the field to write 18 essays that focus on using U S Latino literature in the classroom The selection of the subject texts was developed in conjunction with secondary school teachers who took part in the editors course This resultant volume focuses on major works that are appropriate for high school and undergraduate study including Judith Ortiz Cofer s The Latin Deli Piri Thomas Down These Mean Streets and Cisneros The House on Mango Street Each chapter in this Critical Guide provides pertinent biographical background on the author as well as contextual information that aids in understanding the literary and cultural significance of the work The most valuable component of the critical essays the Analysis of Themes and Forms helps the reader understand the thematic concerns raised by the work particularly the recurring issues of language expression and cultural identity assimilation and intergenerational conflicts Each essay is followed by specific suggestions for teaching the work with topics for classroom discussion Further enhancing the value of this work as a teaching tool are the selected bibliographies of criticism further reading and other related sources that complete each chapter Teachers will also find a Sample Course Outline of U S Latino Literature which serves as guide for developing a course on this important subject
