Against All Enemies Richard A Clarke:

Against All Enemies Richard A. Clarke, 2004 A 1 New York Times Bestseller The Bush administration has squandered the opportunity to eliminate al Qaeda No one has more authority to make that claim than Richard Clarke the former counterterrorism czar for both Bill Clinton and George W Bush He knows better than anyone why we failed to prevent 9 11 and how President Bush reacted to the attack Against All Enemies is both a powerful history of our confrontation with terrorism and a searing indictment of the current administration

Night Hunters William Pace Head, 2014-03-18 In Night Hunters air power historian William P Head provides the first detailed study of the development and deployment of the AC 130 gunship While other airframes and other types of close air support CAS and interdiction weapon systems preceded or flew with the AC 130s this four engine cargo airframe proved to be not only the longest serving fixed wing gunship but also the most effective by far During the Vietnam War the US military developed new tactics and weapons systems to counter a diversity of enemy tactics and geographic features the difficult climate and the shifting diplomatic context One of the most important was the development of the AC 130 Its ability to transport heavier payloads at higher altitudes across longer distances made it the logical choice to be the final Vietnam era fixed wing gunship and the only one that continues to fly missions in the twenty first century In addition it employed many of the most advanced weapons sensors targeting devices and fire control systems of the 1970s or of any era By recounting both the technical development and the combat operations of the plane and by looking at the proposed alternatives for its use in the War on Terror Night Hunters offers a clear view of the role of gunships and of close air support in US wars In today s never ending brushfire wars the AC 130s continue to uphold their reputation for excellence

Watching the World Change David Friend, 2011-08-02 Relates the stories behind the photographs of 9 11 discusses the controversy over whether the images are exploitative or redemptive and shows how photographs help us witness grieve and understand the unimaginable

American Hiroshima David J. Dionisi, 2005 American Hiroshima delivers concrete ideas to defeat terrorists strengthen democracy reduce weapons of mass destruction and establish the United States as a 21st century force for peace Running the World David Rothkopf, 2009-04-28 Never before in the history of mankind have so few people had so much power over so many. The people at the top of the American national security establishment: the President and his principal advisors, the core team at the helm of the National Security Council, are without question the most powerful committee in the history of the world. Yet in many respects they are among the least understood. A former senior official in the Clinton Administration himself, David Rothkopf served with and knows personally many of the NSC's key players of the past twenty-five years. In Running the World he pulls back the curtain on this shadowy world to explore its inner workings, its people, their relationships, their contributions, and the occasions when they have gone wrong. He traces the group's evolution from the final days of the Second World War to the post-Cold War realities of global terror, exploring its triumphs, its human dramas, and most recently what many consider to be its breakdown at a time when we needed it most. Drawing on an extraordinary series of insider interviews with policy makers including Condoleezza Rice, Colin Powell, Henry Kissinger, senior officials of the Bush Administration, and over 130 others, the book offers unprecedented insights into what must change if America is to maintain its unprecedented worldwide leadership in the decades ahead.

Condoleezza Rice: An American Life Elisabeth Bumiller, 2009-01-13 Condoleezza Rice, one of the most powerful and controversial women in the world, has until now remained a mystery behind an elegant, cool veneer. New York Times reporter Elisabeth Bumiller peels back the layers and presents a revelatory portrait of the first black female secretary of state and President George W. Bush's national security adviser on September 11, 2001. Drawing on extensive interviews with Rice and more than 150 others, including colleagues, family members, government officials, and critics, the book relates in more intimate detail than ever before the personal voyage of a young black woman out of the segregated American South and offers dramatic new information about the events and personalities of the Bush administration. In the process, with great insight, Bumiller tells the sweeping story of a tumultuous half century in the nation's history. Trans-Atlantic Relations in a Postmodern World Anton Speekenbrink, 2014-11-14 The fall of the Berlin Wall was a pivotal moment deeply impacting the post-World War II order, with American nuclear might standing sentinel for the preservation of the liberal democratic values of the trans-Atlantic community. The end of the ideological struggle freed the forces shaping the postmodern world. The end of the security trade-off, American nuclear protection against critical but loyal European support, meant that a new partnership based on equality, mutual respect, and legitimate self-interest was needed, and that stability and peace on the Eurasian landmass was the overriding goal. Neither the United States nor Europe, the two constituent communities of the Western world, grasped the opportunity to bring about the needed change. Both remained prisoners of their past instead of innovators of the common future. American exceptionalism and Russophobia was the maze that entrapped the first introvert; preoccupation and divisiveness of purpose lamed the other. The book traces the formative forces of the geopolitical environment during the Cold War and the decades beyond and places these in the context of the emerging postmodern world.

order where regional and global project driven functional cooperation is gradually replacing the Westphalian state where the provision of physical security and the material well being for the individual replaces ideology as the driving force for political action and where the rule of law prevails over the rule of power The penultimate section enumerates some of the most significant issues facing the trans Atlantic partnership and formulates policy suggestions on how to deal with them Acknowledging the significant differences within the partnership the two main themes are first that these differences are more tactical than fundamental and can and must be overcome and second that the partnership is essential for the preservation of the values and beliefs of Western civilization Africa and the War on Terrorism John Davis,2016-03-23

Abject poverty and official corruption make parts of Africa a very attractive destination for terrorist organizations Opportunities have developed during the pre and post 9 11 periods in Africa for the recruitment of terrorists attainment of bases of operations and sources of funding for Al Qaeda or its affiliated terror groups This comprehensive volume provides an extensive examination of major terrorist events in Africa It highlights internal and external indices to illustrate why Africa is so ripe for terrorism ostensibly in terms of recruitment as well as attainment and sources of funding due to the continent s continuing poverty and corruption The volume will prove indispensable reading for anyone researching security issues political sociology and African studies

What Really Happened: the Story of Clinton Inc. 's Efforts to Rewrite Bill Clinton's Record on Iraq and Terrorism Kevin Groenhagen, 2008-07-16 In What Really Happened Kevin Groenhagen presents the facts concerning Bill Clinton's actual record on Iraq and terrorism It's a record that is far different from what Clinton Inc and their allies in the media have been telling the American people during the past eight years The facts Clinton Inc has attempted to rewrite include but are not limited to the following The Clinton administration in 1998 claimed that al Qaeda reached an understanding with the government of Iraq that al Qaeda would not work against that government and that on particular projects specifically including weapons development al Qaeda would work cooperatively with the Government of Iraq Secretary of Defense William Cohen in July 2000 said protecting the American people from the threat posed by axis of evil Iran Iraq and North Korea was the most important issue to address Bill Clinton s policies vis a vis Iraq ultimately led to 9 11 and other messages with no words

The Crimes of Empire Carl Boggs, 2010-02-02 Imperial nations advance their own interests by exploiting other societies To those on the receiving end this is obvious while inside the empire a powerful ideological system of justification tends to hide all but the worst excess Carl Boggs argues that that the US began life two centuries ago as a nascent colonialist regime plundering and conquering the Native Tribes The Indian wars were followed by perpetual militarism and warfare fuelled by a deep sense of national exceptionalism The Crimes Of Empire examines several trends in this process and illustrates the new depths plumbed since 9 11 Violation of international agreements treaties and laws the use of prohibited weapons support for death squads and torture are just some of the practices that America uses to prove technical superiority and media control thus prolonging the American nightmare
