Alive In The Writing Crafting Ethnography In The Company Of Chekhov:

Alive in the Writing Kirin Narayan, 2022-12-22 A gem of a book of use to both beginning and seasoned ethnographers as well as to anyone who wants to improve his or her writing about social life Elizabeth Fine Journal of Folklore Research Anton Chekhov is revered as a boldly innovative playwright and short story writer but he wrote more than just plays and stories In Alive in the Writing an intriguing hybrid of writing guide biography and literary analysis anthropologist and novelist Kirin Narayan introduces readers to some other sides of Chekhov his pithy witty observations on the writing process his life as a writer through accounts by his friends family and lovers and his venture into nonfiction through his book Sakhalin Island By closely attending to the people who lived under the appalling conditions of the Russian penal colony on Sakhalin Chekhov showed how empirical details combined with a literary flair can bring readers face to face with distant different lives enlarging a sense of human responsibility Highlighting this balance of the empirical and the literary Narayan calls on Chekhov to bring new energy to the writing of ethnography and creative nonfiction alike Weaving together selections from writing by and about him with examples from other talented ethnographers and memoirists she offers practical exercises and advice on topics such as story theory place person voice and self A new and lively exploration of ethnography Alive in the Writing shows how the genre's attentive sustained connection with the lives of others can become a powerful tool for any writer A brief and brilliant book about what it means to be an ethnographer and how to do it responsibly and better James Wood The New Yorker Chekhov's Sakhalin Journey Jonathan Cole, 2023-12-14 Chekhov often said that I am a doctor by trade and sometimes I do literary work in my free time a surprising claim given his status as a giant of 20th century drama This literary biographical study uncovers new sides to him as both a medical professional and humanitarian and tells the story of Chekhov's trip to Sakhalin Island in the harsh wastes of Siberia Anton Chekhov practiced medicine for most of his life and engaged in humanitarian work which took him away from writing for months He placed one such trip though across the unforgiving terrain of Siberia to write about the penal island of Sakhalin above all others Chekhov's Sakhalin Journey written by a neuroscientist and practicing clinician uses this trip and Chekhov's own account of it to shed light on hitherto overlooked aspects of his life In doing so it shows that to understand the man we need his medicine as well as his literature and we need to assess his life from his perspective as well as ours The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature

The Anthropologist as Writer Helena Wulff, 2016-03-01 Writing is crucial to anthropology but which genres are anthropologists expected to master in the 21st century This book explores how anthropological writing shapes the intellectual content of the discipline and academic careers First chapters identify the different writing genres and contexts anthropologists actually engage with Second this book argues for the usefulness and necessity of taking seriously the idea of writing as a craft and of writing across and within genres in new ways Although academic writing is an anthropologist's primary genre they also write in many others from drafting administrative texts and filing reports to composing ethnographically inspired journalism and fiction

Writing Anthropology Carole McGranahan, 2020-05-01 In Writing Anthropology fifty two anthropologists reflect on scholarly writing as both craft and commitment These short essays cover a wide range of territory from ethnography genre and the politics of writing to affect storytelling authorship and scholarly responsibility Anthropological writing is more than just communicating findings anthropologists write to tell stories that matter to be accountable to the communities in which they do their research and to share new insights about the world in ways that might change it for the better The contributors offer insights into the beauty and the function of language and the joys and pains of writing while giving encouragement to stay at it to keep writing as the most important way to not only improve one's writing but to also honor the stories and lessons learned through research Throughout they share new thoughts prompts and agitations for writing that will stimulate conversations that cut across the humanities Contributors Whitney Battle Baptiste Jane Eva Baxter Ruth Behar Adia Benton Lauren Berlant Robin M Bernstein Sarah Besky Catherine Besteman Yarimar Bonilla Kevin Carrico C Anne Claus Sienna R Craig Zo Crossland Lara Deeb K Drybread Jessica Marie Falcone Kim Fortun Kristen R Ghodsee Daniel M Goldstein Donna M Goldstein Sara L Gonzalez Ghassan Hage Carla Jones Ieva Jusionyte Alan Kaiser Barak Kalir Michael Lambek Carole McGranahan Stuart McLean Lisa Sang Mi Min Mary Murrell Kirin Narayan Chelsi West Ohueri Anand Pandian Uzma Z Rizvi Noel B Salazar Bhrigupati Singh Matt Sponheimer Kathleen Stewart Ann Laura Stoler Paul Stoller Nomi Stone Paul Tapsell Katerina Teaiwa Marnie Jane Thomson Gina Athena Ulysse Roxanne Varzi Sita Venkateswar Maria D Vesperi Sasha Su Ling Welland Bianca C Williams Jessica Winegar

The Writers Directory, 2013 Writing Ethnography (Second Edition) Jessica Smartt Gullion, 2021-11-29 Ethnographers spend a tremendous amount of time in the field collecting all sorts of empirical material but how do they turn their work into books or articles that people actually want to read This concise engaging guide will help academic writers at all levels to write better Many ethnography textbooks focus more on the ethno portion of our craft and less on developing our graph skills Gullion fills that gap helping ethnographers write compelling authentic stories about their fieldwork From putting the first few words on the page to developing a plot line to publishing Writing Ethnography offers guidance for all stages of the writing process

Writing Ethnography Jessica Smartt Gullion, 2016-01-01 The Teaching Writing series publishes user friendly writing guides penned by authors with publishing records in their subject matter While ethnographers inevitably write up their findings from the field many ethnography textbooks focus more on the ethno portion of our craft and less on developing our graph skills Gullion fills that gap helping ethnographers write compelling authentic stories about their fieldwork From putting the first few words on the page to developing a plot line to publishing Writing Ethnography offers guidance for all stages of the writing process Writing prompts throughout the book encourage the development of manuscripts from start to finish Appropriate for both new and emerging scholars Writing Ethnography is a useful text for qualitative methods research methods courses across disciplines

Tales of the Field John Van Maanen, 2011-07 Once upon a time ethnographers returning from the field simply sat down shuffled their note cards and wrote up their descriptions of the exotic and quaint customs they had observed Today scholars in all disciplines are realizing how their research is presented is at least as important as what is presented Questions of voice style and audience the classic issues of rhetoric have come to the forefront in academic circles John Van Maanen an experienced ethnographer of modern organizational structures is one who believes that the real work begins when he returns to his office with cartons of notes and tapes In Tales of the Field he offers readers a survey of the narrative conventions associated with writing about culture and an analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of various styles He introduces first the matter of fact realistic report of classical ethnography then the self absorbed confessional tale of the participant observer and finally the dramatic vignette of the new impressionistic style He also considers more briefly literary tales jointly told tales and the theoretically focused formal and critical tales Van Maanen illustrates his discussion of each style with excerpts from his own work on the police Tales of the Field offers an informal readable and lighthearted treatment of the rhetorical devices used to present the results of fieldwork Though Van Maanen argues ultimately for the validity of revealing the self while representing a culture he is sensitive to the differing methods and aims of sociology and anthropology His goal is not to establish one true way to write ethnography but rather to make ethnographers of all varieties examine their assumptions about what constitutes a truthful cultural portrait and select consciously and carefully the voice most appropriate for their tales Written with grace and humor Tales of the Field will be an invaluable introduction to novices just learning the fieldwork trade and provocative stimulant to veteran ethnographers Engaging and well written H Ottenheimer Choice

From Notes to Narrative Kristen Ghodsee, 2016-05-10 Ethnography centers on the culture of everyday life So it is ironic that most scholars who do research on the intimate experiences of ordinary people write their books in a style that those people cannot understand In recent years the ethnographic method has spread from its original home in cultural anthropology to fields such as sociology marketing media studies law criminology education cultural studies history geography and political science Yet while more and more students and practitioners are learning how to write ethnographies there is little or no training on how to write ethnographies well From Notes to Narrative picks up where methodological training leaves off Kristen Ghodsee an award winning ethnographer addresses common issues that arise in ethnographic writing Ghodsee works through sentence level details such as word choice and structure She also tackles bigger picture elements such as how to incorporate theory and ethnographic details how to effectively deploy dialogue and how to avoid distracting elements such as long block quotations and in text citations She includes excerpts and examples from model ethnographies The book concludes with a bibliography of other useful writing guides and nearly one hundred examples of eminently readable ethnographic books

Writing Culture James Clifford, George E. Marcus, 2010-10-28 This seminal collection of essays critiquing ethnography as literature is augmented with a new foreword by Kim Fortun exploring the ways in which Writing Culture has changed the face of ethnography over the last 25 years
