It's important that you understand that the bottom line is consistent with the overall strategy in different situations. There should be some strategic differences in the bottom-line approach, after consulting the management team, this means that you "own" strategy" and have the responsibility of making the right decisions.

How can we begin to explore the relationship between the two? The relationship that we will build around is a new definition of the term strategy. Business strategy was defined as a business plan previously, but this concept should be differentiated from the new one.
