Entrepreneurship in Africa Ven Sriram,David Lingelbach,Tigineh Mersha,Franklyn Manu,2020-11-16 It is now widely recognized that in regions like Africa for economic and other reasons the public sector has had to disengage and divest from many areas of the economy and allow private enterprise especially scalable start ups and new ventures to enter and flourish if economic development and employment are to grow There is however a training and education gap since entrepreneurship is rarely taught formally at African universities and when it is it is often approached from a Western perspective which may not be appropriate given that African environments are significantly different from most Western ones in terms of economic infrastructure and political considerations This book allows readers to understand the African entrepreneurial context by guiding them through the principal stages in the life of a new venture and offers approaches both Western and indigenous that can inform their entrepreneurial actions It concludes by examining some specialized topics including female youth and social entrepreneurship as well as real estate and technology Exercises throughout the book will enable readers to evaluate their motivations and preparedness for entrepreneurship and learn how to communicate a new venture s key features to potential stakeholders By focusing on the distinctive features of entrepreneurship in the African context and taking a conversational tone this is an informative and practical text that will be useful for students of Global Entrepreneurship and Business as well as actual and prospective entrepreneurs in the private non profit and public sectors

BUSINESS TIPS FOR BLACK ENTREPRENEURS JAVIER CLEMENTE ENGONGA AVOMO, Being an entrepreneur is not an easy task because it is not just about making money Entrepreneurship is a way of life a concrete way of thinking doing and expressing oneself Everyone can become a successful entrepreneur when they learn above all that success is the sum of small efforts that are repeated every day Nothing is impossible if you really want it and time is an imaginary obstacle as well as a vital necessity In matters of entrepreneurship and business time is a decisive factor for the best use of entrepreneurial and money making opportunities that are always available in an abundant world Certainly traditional mental social and family conditioning as well as the circumstances of each person or place can make it seem impossible to earn money in the most difficult situations and without having to steal or harm anyone but this is not really the case First of all nothing is impossible until someone achieves it and secondly everything is achieved with faith and persistence when you know what you want But when you don't know what you want or what you are looking for you go around in circles you do a lot of things and you usually fail It is just in those moments that a true entrepreneur always gets up once again and continues until the end and achieves all his goals Thank you for reading these lines Javier Clemente Engonga 11 07 2021

Entrepreneurship in Africa Stewart Chibanda, 2010-02-25 Entrepreneurship in Africa explores how our mindset and attitudes affect our enterprises It offers a 3 Dimensional approach to entrepreneurship managerial financial and spiritual The book clearly demonstrates that entrepreneurship is a journey full of joy trials and tribulations It demystifies the paradoxical side of entrepreneurship by offering hope to the entrepreneurship journey It offers a hand holding approach to real life situations The book offers hope in seemingly hopeless situations in which all odds are against you It underscores the importance of having an unshakable vision and how your personal experiences are signposts on the journey to success To survive in business you have to ask questions the right questions Questions like What is money How does sin affect my business Does positive thinking really help in this situation If I get a lot of money what business venture should I pursue This book answers these questions and a lot more It argues that there is great hope for African businesses to excel if only Africans can change their mindsets if only they have positive internal dialogues and if only we can learn from others that have gone before us both in Africa and beyond It is time to unlock Africa's wealth through entrepreneurship It starts by removing some strongholds in our minds These are more internal than external Let us start planning today once these barriers are removed It is often said that it was not raining when Noah started building the ark Noah had some serious planning and preparations before the flood came This is what this book seeks to achieve It hopes to prepare you and give you hope in your entrepreneurship journey

Digital Entrepreneurship in Africa Nicolas Friederici, Michel Wahome, Mark Graham, 2020-07-28 The hope and hype about African digital entrepreneurship contrasted with the reality on the ground in local ecosystems In recent years Africa has seen a digital entrepreneurship boom with hundreds of millions of dollars poured into tech cities entrepreneurship trainings coworking spaces innovation prizes and investment funds Politicians and technologists have offered Silicon Valley influenced narratives of boundless opportunity and exponential growth in which internet enabled entrepreneurship allows Africa to leapfrog developmental stages to take a leading role in the digital revolution This book contrasts these aspirations with empirical research about what is actually happening on the ground The authors find that although the digital revolution has empowered local entrepreneurs it does not untether local economies from the continent's structural legacies Drawing on a five year research project the authors show how entrepreneurs creatively and productively adapt digital technologies to local markets rather than dreaming of global dominance achieving sustainable businesses by scaling based on relationships and customizing digital platform business models for African infrastructure challenge The authors examine African entrepreneurial ecosystems show that African digital entrepreneurs have begun to form a new professional class becoming part of a relatively exclusive cultural and economic elite and discuss the impact of Silicon Valley's mythologies and expectations Finally they consider the implications of their findings and offer recommendations to policymakers and others
