15 Days Of Prayer With Saint Catherine Of Siena:

15 Days of Prayer with Saint Catherine of Siena Chantal van der Plancke, André Knockaert, 2008 Catherine of Siena 1347-1380 had her first vision of Christ at age 6 and dedicated her life to his service as a Dominican. She produced an extraordinary series of nearly 400 letters on spiritual education and the public affairs of the Church and served as an advisor to Pope Gregory XI and his successor Urban VI. Catherine is also the author of the Dialogue and a Doctor of the Church. Saint Catherine issues an invitation and challenge: change direction, move away from self and toward God and neighbor. This 15-day journey will teach you to focus on Christ and be transformed by him, sharing the knowledge and joy of his love with others. The Cross is the central axis of these fifteen days because it is the place that leads to God. This is the vision of spiritual awakening in Christ that Saint Catherine offers us.

15 Days of Prayer With Dorothy Day Michael Boover, 2013-12-25 Dorothy Day connected radical faith with doing radical deeds. Beginning from her discovery of God in the Word when she was eight years old, Michael Boover shares Dorothy's reflections about her pilgrimage to the daily discipline of readiness and openness to God in her life, especially to God in her neighbor. He shares her words on why and how she prays, on her preference for frequent confession, on her intentional choice of suffering and poverty, and on her desire to imitate the saints and to make sanctity the norm of everyone's life. In these 15 days we see how Dorothy's discipline gave her true freedom. In particular, it allowed her to give priority to Love, to take the most direct route to God by loving her neighbor. She recognized the paucity of her own best spiritual efforts and took refuge in the fact that God would do for believers what they could not fully do for themselves. Boover's practical exercises emulate Day's own temperament. They push you to live with more integrity and deeper love, and they show a deep compassion for the difficulty of the challenge.

A Month of Prayer with St. Catherine of Siena Wyatt North, 2020-12-09 St. Catherine of Siena was born during an outbreak of the Plague in Siena in 1347. She was brought up in the faith and, especially after her own sister died at the age of sixteen, found herself committed to pursuits of piety. She joined the Dominican order and at the age of twenty-one had what she described as her mystical marriage to Christ. Today we know St. Catherine mostly through the many letters she wrote to her fellow brothers and sisters in the faith and also through a collection of visions recorded largely by her fellow nuns as she grew close to death. These meditations combine her letters with several of these revelations wherein she speaks in the first person as though speaking from God himself. In her letters and meditations, she speaks at great length about obedience, the centrality of Christ crucified to the faith, and how virtue should be pursued in our quest to grow in intimacy toward God.

Two Millennia of Memorable Christian Women Stanley M. Burgess, Ruth Vassar Burgess, 2020-08-19 For over 2,000 years Christian women have struggled with inequities between the genders. This certainly has been true in matters religious. Christian women have shown ethical, moral, and spiritual strength while being deprived of leadership or power positions reserved for their male counterparts In this tome the authors celebrate a wide variety of such female heroines drawn from early Christian Roman Catholic Orthodox Protestant Pentecostal and Charismatic groups as well as a sprinkling of so called heretical individuals These women often have become saints martyrs visionaries missionaries and spiritual voices models to all generations At the same time it must be remembered that many of them also carried and gave birth to children raised them and fulfilled the other functions required of them in their social contexts The emphasis is on celebrating these memorable individuals Library Journal ,2000

Catherine's] Treatise on consummate perfection Augusta Theodosia Drane,1887 The Cult of Saint Catherine of Siena Gerald Parsons,2008 This book examines the origins development and history of the cult of Saint Catherine of Siena Gerald Parsons argues that the cult of Catherine of Siena constitutes a remarkable example of the cult of a particular saint which across more than six centuries has been the vehicle for an evolving sequence of civil religious rituals and meanings He shows how the cult of this particular saint developed firstly as an expression of Sienese civil religion secondly as a focus for Italian civil religion and finally into an expression of European civil religion Instead of the predominantly devotional and frequently essentially hagiographical approach of much of the literature on Catherine of Siena Parsons examines the significance of her cult from the perspective of civil religion and the social history of religion Sacred Refuge Thomas M. A Guide to Symbols and Types in the Bible and Tradition Fr. Devin Roza,2015-07-01 The Early Church read the Scriptures with the conviction that in the words of St Augustine The New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is unveiled in the New Drawing inspiration from how both the Apostles and Christ himself read the Old Covenant as referring to the New cf Luke 24 27 1 Peter 3 20 21 1 Corinthians 10 1 5 the Church found the Old Testament to be rich with figures or types that foreshadowed both the mysteries of the life of Christ and the mysteries or sacraments of the New Covenant And yet in modern times the study of types or typology has been largely abandoned by scholars due to the dangers of subjectivity and exaggeration How can typology be studied in a way that is objective and that avoids the excesses present in the past Fr Devin Roza seeks to offer a solution to these difficulties by asking the question According to the Scriptures and the living Tradition of the Church what are the types and symbols of the sacraments and what do they mean As authorized representatives of the living Tradition the Liturgy including the readings from the Church Fathers and the Catechism together with the Scriptures offer both the scholar and pastor the opportunity to study typology as the Catholic Church herself understands and prays it today in those texts the Church considers her own Fulfilled in Christ thus offers a comprehensive and readable summary of references to types and symbols of the sacraments in the Scriptures and the living Tradition of the Church as represented by the Liturgy and the Catechism The result is a highly objective scholarly and at the same time pastoral study of how the Church understands and lives the types and symbols of the sacraments today The Dublin Review Nicholas Patrick Wiseman, 1890 An Educator's Guide to Living a Virtuous Life | 2nd Edition Sr. John Dominic Rasmussen, OP, 2023-03-03 An Educator's Guide to living a virtuous life aids educators and parents in understanding the importance of living a virtuous life It will assist you in teaching those entrusted to your care The guide answers the following questions why what who and how to educate in virtue The Educator's Guide provides the content needed to educate youth in discipleship and virtue by providing in depth knowledge of the theological and moral virtues as well as the corresponding gifts of the Holy Spirit Educators will help students clearly understand how everyone is called to be a disciple of Christ and that through a personal encounter with Him each of us is gifted with interior happiness and true freedom
