The Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines: Position papers and bibliography U.P. Law Constitution Project,1986 The Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines Philippines. Constitutional Commission of 1986,Jose N. Nollado,1987 Freedom of Information and the Developing World Colin Darch,Peter G Underwood,2009-12-14

Rather than simply summarising the state of play in African countries and elsewhere Freedom of Information and the Developing World identifies and makes explicit the assumptions about the citizen s relationship to the state that lie beneath Freedom of Information FoI discourse The book goes on to test them against the reality of the pervasive politics of patronage that characterise much of African practice Develops a discourse about the concept of FoI Discussion of the human rights claim appropriates the concepts of Hohfeldian analysis for more radical purposes in support of the idea that the state has a duty to implement FoI practices The Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines Philippines,Joaquin G.

Parties and Parliaments in Southeast Asia Roland Rich, 2014-06-23 Political parties are an essential ingredient in a modern democracy They are also seen as the least trusted and most problematic institution in most democratic systems While there have been attempts to strengthen parties through institutional design and capacity building a new strategy has been to quarantine them from parts of parliament Within the space of a few years the Philippines Thailand and Indonesia implemented designs for parliamentary representation that proscribed the established political parties from a parliamentary chamber or part thereof Using these three countries as case studies this book traces the historical context for institutional designs the intentions behind them and their implementation through at least one full parliamentary term It investigates the conceptual architecture of the non partisan designs identifying corporatism as one discredited alternative and championship as another While there is a yearning for exemplary people as representatives the designers have struggled to find a successful means of having these champions elected to office The book concludes that non partisan chambers based on the evidence to date are not viable This book is of interest to scholars of Southeast Asian Politics Party Politics Governance Institutions and Democracy

Property and Human Rights in a Global Context Ting Xu, Jean Allain, 2016-03-24 Property as a human rights concern is manifested through its incorporation in international instruments and as a subject of the law through property related cases considered by international human rights organs Yet for the most part the relationship between property and human rights has been discussed in rather superficial terms lacking a clear substantive connection or common language That said the currents of globalisation have witnessed a new era of interrelation between these two areas of the law including the emergence of international intellectual property law and the recognition of indigenous claims which in fundamental ways speak to an engagement with human rights law This collection starts the conversation between human rights lawyers and property lawyers and explores analytical approaches to the increasing relationship between property and human rights in a global context The chapters engage with key theoretical and policy debates and range across three main themes The re evaluation of the public private divide in the law the tensions between the market and social justice in development and the balance between the rights of individuals and those of communities The chapters adopt a global comparative perspective and engage in case studies from countries including India Philippines Brazil the United States the United Kingdom and includes various regions of Africa and Europe Philippine Journal of Public Administration ,2008
