Manora is also a popular picnic spot because of the long sandy beaches along the southern edge of the island, which merge into the beaches of the Sandspit and then extend several kilometres to the beaches at Hawkesbay. At the southeastern end of Manora island is the tallest lighthouse (28 m or 91 feet high) in Pakistan. The island lies approximately 15-20 minutes by boat ride from mainland Karachi but there are no good hotels available for an overnight stay. For this and other reasons, the Government of Pakistan has been considering developing the island into a tourist destination. The island has been envisioned as an exotic location with natural landscapes such as the beaches and the mangrove forests, and secluded beauty with an upgrade for the lighthouse to add to the quaint feel of the island.

Development

Pakistan's Ministry for Ports and Shipping has just signed Memorandum of Understanding in 2006 with Dubai World and Emaar Properties for the redevelopment of Manora Island. As part of the development plans, the KPT and all Military establishments will vacate the island and hand it over to the the companies for development. The development, so to speak, will comprise of establishing high rise hotels and apartment buildings in the areas.

Religious Literacy, Pluralism, and Global Engagement Chris Seiple, Dennis R. Hoover, 2021-12-27 This pioneering handbook proposes an approach to pluralism that is relational principled and non relativistic going beyond banal calls for mere tolerance The growing religious diversity within societies around the world presents both challenges and opportunities A degree of competition between deeply held religious worldview perspectives is natural and inevitable yet at the same time the world urgently needs engagement and partnership across lines of difference None of the world s most pressing problems can be solved by any single actor and as such it is not a question of if but when you partner with an individual or institution that does not think act or believe as you do The authors argue that religious literacy defined as a dynamic combination of competencies and skills continuously refined through real world cross cultural engagement is vital to building societies and states of neighborly solidarity and civic fairness Through examination reflection and case studies across multiple faith traditions and professional fields this handbook equips scholars and students as well as policymakers and practitioners to assess analyze and act collaboratively in a world of deep diversity The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
