Cultural Texts of Resistance in Zimbabwe Rodwell Makombe,2021-10-01 Cultural Texts of Resistance in Zimbabwe explores how ordinary citizens appropriate and deploy cultural texts such as internet memes songs political cartoons and social media discussions as vehicles to contest hegemonic narratives of the state and insert alternative ways of imagining the future of the nation This book is a timely attempt to examine the multiple and complex dimensions of resistance in post millennial Zimbabwe through analysing different cultural productions It centres the voices of ordinary Zimbabweans by examining popular cultural texts that reflect their experiences and ways of living within the Zimbabwean crisis of the post 2000 period The book argues that subversive cultural texts have become important tools that ordinary citizens appropriate to challenge the repressive political environment and imagine different ways of writing the nation The book brings a fresh perspective to ongoing discussions on how popular cultural texts contribute to the narration of the nation especially in the context of crisis

Green Transitional

Justice Rachel Killeen, Lauren Dempster,2025-06-30 This book rethinks the boundaries of transitional justice urging scholars and practitioners to confront the often overlooked nexus between mass violence and ecological harm Through an in depth analysis of the field s limitations such as its anthropocentric legalism neocolonial practices and alignment with neoliberalism the book critiques the historical marginalisation of Nature in transitional justice discourse and practice It argues that ignoring environmental harm not only undermines the possibility of holistic justice but also perpetuates structural violence and inequality In response the book sketches a greener transitional justice integrating principles from environmental justice Indigenous knowledge systems and ecocentric perspectives It explores the possibilities of recognising Nature as a victim of mass violence adapting existing mechanisms to incorporate environmental harm and fostering transformative approaches premised on the interdependence of human and ecological well being This book is written for students researchers and practitioners of transitional justice and fields related to conflict transformation peacebuilding environmental protection and development
