Agricultural Policy Under Economic Development Earl Orel Heady, 1962 Agricultural Policy Under Economic Development Earl O. Heady, 1965 Policy under economic development Status and problems under growth Impact of economic development and relative factor returns Competitive structure and supply Supply market power and return of resources Expenditure patterns and demand potential Structure of agriculture Criteria for policy Games goals and political processes Modern need in development and policy Compensation policy and supply control Income and mobility of labor and community development Allocation of resource in education Policies of land unput and supply period Capital supply and family farms Food Security, Agricultural Policies and Economic Growth Niek Koning, 2017-04-21 Using a political economic approach supplemented with insights from human ecology this volume analyzes the long term dynamics of food security and economic growth The book begins by discussing the nature of preindustrial food crises and the changes that have occurred since the 19th century with the ascent of technical science and the fossil fuel revolution It explains how these changes improved living standards but that the realization of this improvement was usually dependent on government support for smallholder modernization The author sets out how the evolution of food security in different regions has been influenced by farm policy choices and how these choices were shaped by local societal characteristics international relations and changing configurations in metropolitan countries Separate chapters are devoted to the interaction of this evolution with debates on food security and economic growth and with international economic policies The final chapters highlight the new challenges for global food security that will arise as traditional sources of biomass production and the more easily extractable reserves of fossil biomass become depleted or can no longer be used Overall the book emphasizes the inadequacy of current explanations with regard to these challenges It explores what is needed to ensure a sustainable future and calls for a rethinking of these issues a necessary reflection in today s unstable global political situation Agricultural Policy Reform and the Rural Economy in OECD Countries

Guidelines for the Integration of Sustainable Agriculture and Rural Development Into Agricultural Policies J. B. Hardaker,Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1997-01-01 Policy objectives for Sustainable Agriculture and Rural Development SARD may be summed up as the pursuit of the goals of growth equity efficiency and sustainability Growth is important to meet the food needs of growing populations with rising incomes and to provide continued sustainable livelihoods for rural people in the future Equity is important in terms of the relief of poverty and deprivation for this and future generations Efficiency matters since we cannot afford to waste resources Finally sustainability is the objective that has come into increased prominence with the recognition of the significant threats that exist to future welfare and the environment Sustainability has many dimensions and interpretations but in the context of agriculture embraces food security responsibility in resource use and environmental management and the resilience of production systems to shocks and challenges There is interdependence between each of these four objectives so that the pursuit of SARD requires an integrated approach to policy making in which all four aspects are considered Publisher s description
