Divine and Human Providence Ignacio Silva, Simon Kopf, 2020-11-19 This volume offers an original perspective on divine providence by examining philosophical psychological and theological perspectives on human providence as exhibited in virtuous human behaviours Divine providence is one of the most pressing issues in analytic theology and philosophy of religion today especially in view of scientific evidence for a natural world full of indeterminacies and contingencies Therefore we need new ways to understand and explain the relations of divine providence and creaturely action The volume is structured dynamically going from chapters on human providence to those on divine providence and back Drawing on insights from virtue ethics psychology and cognitive science the philosophy of providence in the face of contingent events and the theology of grace each chapter contributes to an original overall perspective that human providential action is a resource suited specifically to personal action and hence related to the purported providential action of a personal God By putting forward a fresh take on divine providence this book enters new territory on an age old issue It will therefore be of great interest to scholars of theology and philosophy

Philosophy, Who Needs It? Jason D. Crowder, 2016-03-02 Too often skeptics charge Christians with having a blind faith Unfortunately believers have added fuel to the charges of skeptics by speaking of their faith illogically But the Christian faith is not a blind faith In fact biblical faith is never a blind irrational faith Christianity rests firmly on the stone that was rejected by the builders which has become the cornerstone Jesus Christ Acts 4 11 Living biblically requires thinking biblically just as to think biblically entails to live biblically as Winfried Corduan notes in the Foreword As followers of Christ believers cannot separate biblical thinking and biblical living These two behaviors are eternally connected not only in the person of Jesus Christ but they stem from the eternal being of God the Father and his eternal truth Christ mandates that his followers love God with their entire being heart soul mind and strength Mark 12 30 How are believers to go about living out this biblical mandate Christian faith is a warranted belief This is why it is so essential that Christians recognize the value and importance of philosophy and its proper place in Christendom and in the Christian s walk
