Camera Indica:

Camera Indica Christopher Pinney, 1997 A wedding couple gazes resolutely at viewers from the wings of a butterfly a portrait surrounded by rose petals commemorates a recently deceased boy These quiet but moving images represent the changing role of photographic portraiture in India a topic anthropologist Christopher Pinney explores in Camera Indica Studying photographic practice in India Pinney traces photography's various purposes and goals from colonial through postcolonial times He identifies three key periods in Indian portraiture the use of photography under British rule as a quantifiable instrument of measurement the later role of portraiture in moral instruction and the current visual popular culture and its effects on modes of picturing Photographic culture thus becomes a mutable realm in which capturing likeness is only part of the project Lavishly illustrated Pinney's account of the change from depiction to invention uncovers fascinating links between these evocative images and the society and history from which they emerge The Camera as Actor Amy Cox Hall, 2020-11-29 Looking beyond the impact photographs have on the perpetuation and expression of social norms and stereotypes and the influence of the act of taking a photograph this new collection brings together international scholars to examine the camera itself as an actor Bringing the camera back into view this volume furthers our understanding of how and in what ways imaging technology shapes us our lives and the representations out of which we fashion knowledge base our judgments and ultimately act Through a broad range of case studies the authors in this collection make the convincing claim that the camera is much more than a mechanical device brought to life by the photographer This book will be of interest to scholars in photography visual culture anthropology and the history of photography Empires of the Senses Andrew Jon Rotter, 2019 A deeply researched study this book offers the first sensory history of the British empire in India and the United States in the Philippines reflecting on how senses structured the colonizers perception of the colonized and vice versa and impacted the British and American imperial projects Colonialist Photography Eleanor M. Hight, Gary D. Sampson, 2013-06-17 Colonialist Photography is an absorbing collection of essays and photographs exploring the relationship between photography and European and American colonialism The book is packed with well over a hundred captivating images ranging from the first experiments with photography as a documentary medium up to the decolonization of many regions after World War II Reinforcing a broad range of Western assumptions and prejudices Eleanor M Hight and Gary D Sampson argue that such images often assisted in the construction of a colonial culture Territory of Desire Ananya Jahanara Kabir, 2009 A result of territorial disputes between India and Pakistan since 1947 exacerbated by armed freedom movements since 1989 the ongoing conflict over Kashmir is consistently in the news Taking a unique multidisciplinary approach Territory of Desire asks how and why Kashmir came to be so intensely desired within Indian Pakistani and Kashmiri nationalistic imaginations The Camera as Witness Joy L. K. Pachuau, Willem van Schendel, 2015-04-13 The book challenges the stereotypes about and narrates the daily lives of the Mizos through the use of vernacular photography

Celluloid Deities Preminda Jacob, 2008-10-23 Towering billboards featuring photorealistic portraits of popular cinema stars and political leaders dominated the cityscape of Chennai in the south Indian state of Tamil Nadu throughout the second half of the twentieth century Studying the manufacture and reception of these billboards_ known locally as banners and cutouts_ within the context of the entwined histories of the cinema industry and political parties in Tamil Nadu Preminda Jacob reveals the broader significance of these fragments of visual culture beyond their immediate function as pretty pieces of advertising Jacob analyzes the juxtaposition of cinematic and political imagery in the extra cinematic terrain of Chennai s city streets and how this placement was pivotal to the elevation of regional celebrities to cult status When interpreting these images and discussing their political and cultural resonance within the Tamil Nadu community Jacob draws upon multiple perspectives to give appropriate context to this fascinating form of visual media

Unframed Rahaab Allana, 2022-12-20 Unframed presents some of the complex dimensions of South Asia oriented lens based media specifically tracing the evolution of photography in the subcontinent from the nineteenth century to the present Through intersecting trajectories thirty one texts arranged in five distinct yet interdependent sections examine the general history particular meta histories of the medium in our region reflecting the depth of image practices in India Pakistan Sri Lanka Bangladesh Nepal and Myanmar Drawing upon the broader arc of South Asian visual cultures this collection reader analyzes emergent themes testimonies and socio cultural shifts through key discussions around the invention application and consequent proliferation of lens based work Seminal analyses revised for this volume as well as new commissioned essays and a set of interviews with practitioners curators collectively explore the subtle entanglements of memory and space notions of selfhood the blurring of geographic taxonomies the edicts of the gaze the rupture of identity varied dimensions of mirroring othering and the unstable politics of etching moments in time Unframed thereby turns a critical eye upon lyrical and evidentiary frameworks challenging the obduracy of our narrative positions and the conditioned habits of viewing that reinforce our intractable claims to know who and where we are These pages offer fresh insights into how our analogue digital and other hybrid technologies compel us to confront any monolithic history of photography by working through the multiplicity of facts and the singularity of truth Contributors Anoli Perera Aparna Kumar Ashmina Ranjit Aveek Sen Bakirathi Mani Christopher Pinney David Odo Dechen Roder Omar Khan Premjish Achari Rahul Roy Raqs Media Collective Sabeena Gadihoke Sabih Ahmed Sai Htin Linn Htet Geeta Kapur Gopesa Paquette Hammad Nasar Ismeth Raheem Mrinalini Venkateswaran Nancy Adajania Nayan Tara Gurung Kakshapati Nathalie Johnston Saloni Mathur Savitri Sawhney Shahidul Alam Sudhir Mahadevan Sukanya Baskar Tanzim Wahab Yu Yu Myint Than

Photographs Objects Histories Elizabeth Edwards, Janice Hart, 2004-06 This innovative volume explores the idea that while photographs are images they are also objects and this materiality is integral to their meaning and use The case studies presented focus on photographs active in different institutional political religious and domestic spheres where physical properties the nature of their use and the cultural formations in which they function make their objectness central to how we should understand them The book's contributions are drawn from disciplines including the history of photography visual anthropology and art history with case studies from a range of countries such as the Netherlands North America Australia Japan Romania and Tibet Each shows the methodological strategies they have developed in order to fully exploit the idea of the materiality of photographic images Governing Gender and Sexuality in Colonial India Jessica Hinchy,2019-04-04

Examines the colonial and postcolonial governance of gender and sexuality through the history of transgender Hijras in north India The Handbook of Photography Studies Gil Pasternak,2020-08-13 The Handbook of Photography Studies is a state of the art overview of the field of photography studies examining its thematic interests dynamic research methodologies and multiple scholarly directions It is a source of well informed analytical and reflective discussions of all the main subjects that photography scholars have been concerned with as well as a rigorous study of the field's persistent expansion at a time when digital technology regularly boosts our exposure to new and historical photographs alike Split into five core parts the Handbook analyzes the field's histories theories and research strategies discusses photography in academic disciplinary and interdisciplinary contexts draws out the main concerns of photographic scholarship interrogates photography's cultural and geopolitical influences and examines photography's multiple uses and continued changing faces Each part begins with an introductory text giving historical contextualization and scholarly orientation Featuring the work of international experts and offering diverse examples insights and discussions of the field's rich historiography the Handbook provides critical guidance to the most recent research in photography studies This pioneering and comprehensive volume presents a systematic synopsis of the subject that will be an invaluable resource for photography researchers and students from all disciplinary backgrounds in the arts humanities and social sciences Understanding Photojournalism Jennifer Good,Paul

Lowe,2020-09-23 Understanding Photojournalism explores the interface between theory and practice at the heart of photojournalism mapping out the critical questions that photojournalists and picture editors consider in their daily practice and placing these in context Outlining the history and theory of photojournalism this textbook explains its historical and contemporary development who creates selects and circulates images and the ethics aesthetics and politics of the practice Carefully chosen international case studies represent a cross section of key photographers practices and periods within photojournalism enabling students to understand the central questions and critical concepts Illustrated with a range of photographs and case material including interviews with contemporary photojournalists this book is essential reading for students taking university and college courses on photography within a wide range of disciplines and includes an annotated guide to further reading and a glossary of terms to further expand your studies The Routledge Companion to Journalism in the Global South Bruce Mutsvairo, Saba Bebawi, Eddy Borges-Rey, 2023-11-21 Responding to mounting calls to decenter and decolonize journalism The Routledge Companion to Journalism in the Global South examines not only the deep seated challenges associated with the historical imposition of Western journalism standards on constituencies of the Global South but also the opportunities presented to journalists and journalism educators if they choose to partake in international collaboration and education This collection returns to fundamental questions around the meaning value and practices of journalism from alternative methodological theoretical and epistemological perspectives These questions include What really is journalism Who gets to and who is qualified to define it What role do ethics play What are the current trends challenges and opportunities for journalism in the Global South How is news covered reported written and edited in non Western settings What can journalism players living and working in industrialized markets learn from their non Western colleagues and counterparts and vice versa Contributors challenge accepted universal ethical standards while showing the relevance of customs traditions and cultures in defining and shaping local and regional journalism Showcasing some of the most important research on journalism in the Global South and by journalists based in the Global South this companion is key reading for anyone researching the principles and practices of journalism from a de essentialized perspective Eugenics, 'Aristogenics', Photography Kris Belden-Adams, 2020-06-08 This is the first study to explore the connections between late 19th century university college composite class portraits and the field of eugenics which first took hold in the United States at Harvard University Eugenics Aristogenics Photography takes a closer look at how composite portraiture documented an idealized reality of the New England social caste experience and explains how when positioned in relation to the individual stories and portraits of members of the class the portraits reveal points of non conformity and rebellion with their own rhetoric Reverence, Resistance and Politics of Seeing the Indian National Flag Sadan Jha, 2016-01-08 Studies the politics that make the tricolour flag possibly the most revered of the symbols and icons associated with nationalism in twentieth century India Reading Marie al-Khazen's Photographs Yasmine Nachabe Taan, 2020-11-26 The Lebanese photographer Marie al Khazen seized every opportunity to use her camera during the years that she was active between 1920 and 1940 She not only documented her travels around tourist sites in Lebanon but also sought creative experimentation with her camera by staging scenes manipulating shadows and superimposing negatives to produce different effects in her prints Within her photographs bedouins and European friends peasants and landlords men and women comfortably share the same space Her photographs include an intriguing collection portraying her family and friends living their everyday lives in 1920s and 30s Zgharta a village in the north of Lebanon Yasmine Nachabe Taan explores these photographs emphasizing the ways in which notions of gender and class are inscribed within them and revealing how they are charged with symbols of women s emancipation to today s viewers through women s presence as individuals separate from family restrictions of that time Images in which women are depicted smoking cigarettes driving cars riding horses and accompanying men on hunting trips counteract the common ways in which women were portrayed in contemporary Lebanon Fragments of Truth Naomi Angel,2022-08-15 In 2008 the Canadian government established a Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC to review the history of the residential school system a brutal colonial project that killed and injured many Indigenous children and left a legacy of trauma and pain In Fragments of Truth Naomi Angel analyzes the visual culture of reconciliation and memory in relation to this complex and painful history In her analyses of archival photographs from the residential school system representations of the schools in popular media and literature and testimonies from TRC proceedings Angel traces how the TRC served as a mechanism through which memory trauma and visibility became apparent She shows how many Indigenous communities were able to use the TRC process as a way to claim agency over their memories of the schools Bringing to light the ongoing costs of transforming settler states into modern nations Angel demonstrates how the TRC offers a unique optic through which to survey the long history of colonial oppression of Canada's Indigenous populations

Commodities and Culture in the Colonial World Supriya Chaudhuri,Josephine McDonagh,Brian Murray,Rajeswari Rajan,2017-09-05 Commodity culture and colonialism are intimately related and mutually constitutive The desire for commodities drove colonial expansion at the same time that colonial expansion fuelled technological invention created new markets for goods displaced populations and transformed local and indigenous cultures in dramatic and often violent ways This book analyses the transformation of local cultures in the context of global interaction in the period 1851-1914 By focusing on episodes in the social and cultural lives of commodities it explores some of the ways in which commodities shaped the colonial cultures of global modernity Chapters by experts in the field examine the production circulation display and representation of commodities in various regional and national contexts and draw on a range of theoretical and disciplinary approaches An integrated coherent and urgent response to a number of key debates in postcolonial and Victorian studies world literature and imperial history this book will be of interest to researchers with interests in migration commodity culture colonial history and transnational networks of print and ideas
