Political Engagement in Canadian City Elections R. Michael McGregor, Laura B. Stephenson, 2024-03-12 Municipal elections in Canada don t look much like those held at the federal and provincial levels A key difference is a significant discrepancy in voter turnout but relatively little is known about why far fewer people vote in city elections Voters show less interest in local government seeing it as less influential than other levels yet they believe their views matter more to local politicians Political Engagement in Canadian City Elections explores this apparent contradiction by asking who participates in politics how they go about it and why Drawing from the Canadian Municipal Election Study a novel survey of electors in eight large cities across the country in 2017 and 2018 contributors consider factors ranging from the universal such as the demographic profile of voters or how economic conditions affect them to the specific for example participation in school board and council elections There are more municipal elections than any other kind in Canada The discoveries in Political Engagement in Canadian City Elections collectively represent a major leap forward in our understanding of voter activity at the community and municipal level

Latouche, 2019-05-25 I said What Is the fourth book by Marcel Latouche It is a collection of columns articles blogs and speeches dealing with policies and politics at different levels of government All the material in the book is dated and provides an insight into the saying Those who ignore history are bound to repeat it Latouche's background in economics and finance allows him to express his thoughts on matters concerning public sector finance and public policy His style is oratory and his writing is simple and easy to follow The material covered comprises challenges regarding local provincial and national governments in Canada In addition he identifies the effect of international matters and issues concerning Canada's largest trade partner and neighbor the United States of America There is no conclusion in this book Agree with the author or not his belief that past is prologue makes a compelling case to read this book because much of what is deliberated is about being proactive instead of being reactive Global Citizenship, Common Wealth and Uncommon Citizenships, 2018-08-16 This set of essays critically analyze global citizenship by bringing together leading ideas about citizenship and the commons in this time that both needs and resists a global perspective on issues and relations Education plays a significant role in how we come to address these issues and this volume will contribute to ensuring that equity global citizenship and the common wealth provide platforms from which we might engage in transformational collective work The authors address the global significance of debates and struggles about belonging and abjection solidarity and rejection identification and othering as well as love and hate Global citizenship as a concept and a practice is now being met with a dangerous call for insularism and a protracted ethno nationalism based on global economic imperialism movements for white supremacy and miscegenation various forms of religious extremism and identity politics but which antithetically also comes from the anti globalization movement focused on building strong sustainable communities We see a taming of citizens that contributes to the taming of what we understand as the public sphere and the commons the places of cultural natural and intellectual resources that are shared and not privately owned The work of global citizenship education is distinguishable from the processes of a deadly globalization or destruction of the world that responds to the interlocking issues that make life on the planet precarious for human and non humans everywhere albeit an unequal precarity This book is an invitation into a conversation that explores and makes visible some of the hidden chasms of oppression and inequity in the world It is meant to provoke both argument and activism as we work to secure common spaces that are broadly life sustaining Contributors are Ali A Abdi Sung Kyung Ahn Chouaib El Bouhali Xochilt Hernandez Carrie Karsgaard Marlene McKay Michael O Sullivan Christina Palech Karen Pashby Karen J Pheasant Neganigwane Thashika Pillay Ashley Rerrie Grace J Rwiza Toni Samek Lynette Shultz Harry Smaller Crain Soudien Derek Tannis and Irene Friesen Wolfstone
