Cape Malay Cooking & Other Delights Cookbook, 2015 Heritage Formation and the Senses in Post-Apartheid South Africa Duane Jethro, 2020-05-11 In this book, Duane Jethro creates a framework for understanding the role of the senses in processes of heritage formation. He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation-building heritage projects in South Africa during the post-apartheid period. The book also highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative changing sensory worlds Jethro uses five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria how smell memories of apartheid era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularized during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimize its unofficial African and South African heritage status This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and with its focus on aesthetics and material culture is in sync with the broader material turn in the humanities

Regarding Muslims Gabeba Baderoon, 2014-06-01 An analysis of the role of Muslims from South Africa s founding to the present and points to the resonance of these discussions beyond South Africa How do Muslims fit into South Africa s well known narrative of colonialism apartheid and post apartheid South Africa is infamous for apartheid but the country s foundation was laid by 176 years of slavery from 1658 to 1834 which formed a crucible of war genocide and systemic sexual violence that continues to haunt the country today Enslaved people from East Africa India and South East Asia many of whom were Muslim would eventually constitute the majority of the population of the Cape Colony the first of the colonial territories that would eventually form South Africa Drawing on an extensive popular and official archive Regarding Muslims analyses the role of Muslims from South Africa s founding moments to the contemporary period and points to the resonance of these discussions beyond South Africa It argues that the 350 year archive of images documenting the presence of Muslims in South Africa is central to understanding the formation of concepts of race sexuality and belonging In contrast to the themes of extremism and alienation that dominate Western portrayals of Muslims Regarding Muslims explores an extensive repertoire of picturesque Muslim figures in South African popular culture which oscillates with more disquieting images that occasionally burst into prominence during moments of crisis This pattern is illustrated through analyses of etymology popular culture visual art jokes bodily practices oral narratives and literature
