Carl Rogers On Becoming A Person:

On Becoming a Person Carl Ransom Rogers, 1955 Collection of essays by American psychotherapist Carl Rogers written between 1951 and 1961 in which he put forth his ideas about self esteem flexibility respect for self and acceptance of others

On Becoming a Person Carl Ransom Rogers, 1961 Abstract A psychotherapist's clinical dealings with personal counseling and interpersonal relationships from a context of personal experience and learning is reviewed in a collection of papers designed for professionals in many disciplines Understanding of person centered concepts such as self actualization individual growth and personal goals may lead to lessening of tensions in human relations The therapeutic relationship facilitates the process of growth and change in a client Characteristics of helping relationships are described The therapist expresses his view of how a fully functioning person behaves Research in client centered psychotherapy is discussed Psychotherapy has potential implications for education interpersonal communication family life and personal creativity Behavioral sciences should play a constructive role in personal development Summary of Carl Rogers's On Becoming A Person Everest Media, 2022-03-08T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 I am a psychologist who has spent much of his career studying psychotherapy My book Client Centered Therapy is about the suffering and the hope the anxiety and the satisfaction that fills each therapist's counseling room It is about the unique relationship each therapist forms with each client and the common elements that they all share 2 I was raised in a home marked by close family ties a very strict and uncompromising religious and ethical atmosphere and a worship of the virtue of hard work I was fascinated by the night flying moths and I became an authority on the gorgeous Luna Cecropia and other moths that inhabited our woods 3 I was a history major at Wisconsin when I fell in love with a girl whom I had known for many years I was married with the reluctant consent of my parents so that we could go to graduate school together 4 I was a member of a group that petitioned the administration to allow them to set up a seminar for credit a seminar with no instructor where the curriculum would be composed of their own questions The seminary was understandably perplexed by this but they granted our petition
