Leading Cross-Culturally Sherwood G. Lingenfelter, 2008-12 A leading voice in intercultural ministry draws on biblical principles to offer a practical guide to effective multicultural leadership in a variety of settings Leading Cross-Culturally Sherwood G. Lingenfelter, 2008-12-01 As the US becomes more diverse cross cultural ministry is increasingly important for nearly all pastors and church leaders Of particular concern is the issue of leadership a difficult task made even more challenging in multicultural settings Sherwood Lingenfelter helps the reader understand his or her own leadership culture and its blind spots examine it critically in light of Scripture and become an effective learner of other cultural perspectives on leadership He also confronts the issues of power inherent in any leadership situation Lingenfelter carefully defines cross cultural leadership and unpacks that definition throughout the book with an emphasis on building communities of vision trust and empowerment through leadership based on biblical principles In the end he argues that leaders must inhabit the gospel story to be effective cross culturally Power and the Powers Andrew R. Hardy, Richard Whitehouse, Dan Yarnell, 2015-10-12 Missio Dei by its very nature requires the church to come to terms with the exercise of power both internally and externally as it confronts the world Tune in to any newscast or glance at the daily newspaper and it immediately becomes clear that the use and abuse of power is a live issue The more we focus on the twists and turns of current events the more it appears that uncorrupted exercise of power eludes the human race All too often we become uneasily aware that there are powers lying behind the power that any of us wields whether it is in the family the classroom on the shop floor in the boardroom or in churches Effective missional leadership involves creative engagement with the powers at work in the world without being debased by them This book sets out to address the issue of the use and misuse of power from biblical theological and practical perspectives The authors bring their theological pastoral missionary and personal experience to their task in order to inform challenge and invite readers into a responsible use of the powers that God has put into the hands of each one of us to achieve his purposes in the world Sustaining a Healthy Ministerial Workplace Sutton, Barbara, Klimoski, Victor, This book focuses on eight critical elements of a healthy ministerial workplace illustrated by stories and theological reflection of eight experienced lay ecclesial ministers The book includes a model for using the stories for professional development and an assessment tool for examining the reader's workplace Together they offer a pathway for effective positive and sustainable change It is often easier to describe the problem than figure out what to do about it This book does both It emerges from the research of Dr Barabra Sutton on burnout in ministry She was surprised to learn that burnout was not the issue but disengagement and disengagement was the byproduct of unhealthy workplaces The authors invited eight experienced ministers to develop stories from their work that illustrated the elements of a healthy workplace community values vocation fairness workload control reward and financial well being While the stories themselves often recount moments of heartbreak familiar to ministers they provide theological interpretation that returns the emphasis to the transformative power of each element

Accountability in Missions Jonathan J. Bonk, 2011-10-21 The Korean missions movement is perhaps the most significant story of the Church in the world over the past one hundred years Today Korea can boast of being the leading sender of missionaries per head of population Yet this movement has not been well integrated into the global mission community and also this community has at times failed to understand and learn from this tremendous work of God I am excited that God has brought together a unique body of people to wrestle with these issues This work will help bring about much needed collaboration and develop each other's strengths in an environment of mutual respect MALCOLM L MCGREGOR SIM International Director Accountability in Missions is a remarkable book exploring the full range of mission accountability issues strategic financial and relational from both Korean and North American perspectives This is global missiology made practical and accessible to all missions practitioners The many articles that penetrate the mysteries of Korean and North American interaction especially make it a must read book for all Koreans and North Americans working together STEVE STRAUSS Professor of Mission and Intercultural Studies Dallas Theological Seminary This collection of essays provides a biblical and theological basis for accountability and brings voices East and West demonstrating that accountability to God and to others is a universal principle not linked to one culture or context i e Western Further the collection is eminently practical addressing matters of governance decision making finance and personal integrity To all mission leaders I say read this book Actually read it but also find colleagues with whom to discuss and digest these principles and review our mission practices GORDON T SMITH President reSource Leadership International Teamwork Cross-Culturally Sherwood G. Lingenfelter, Julie A. Green, 2022-05-17 Following Sherwood Lingenfelter's successful books on ministering teaching and leading cross culturally with combined sales of over 200 000 copies Teamwork Cross Culturally casts a vision for how teams made up of diverse peoples can serve in unity as the body of Christ despite the complicated problems that arise The book equips leaders to respond to divisive issues so that multinational mission teams can do the work of ministry in ways that honor God Real life examples of teamwork challenges from around the world demonstrate that in Christ responses are achievable

Crossing Cultures in Scripture Marvin J. Newell, 2016-10-02 Missionary and missions professor Marvin Newell provides a biblical theology of culture and mission mining the depths of Scripture to tease out missiological insights and crosscultural perspectives Organized canonically from Genesis to Revelation this text reveals how the whole of Scripture speaks to contemporary mission realities Ecclesial Leadership as Friendship Chloe Lynch, 2019-03-01 When it comes to talking about the activity of directing the church the language of leadership and leaders is increasingly popular Yet what is leadership and how might theological narratives better resource the discourse and practice of leadership in ecclesial contexts In identifying and critiquing managerialism as a dominant narrative of leadership in the Western church this book calls for an alternative approach founded on the concept of friendship Engaging with the wider field of leadership studies the book establishes an understanding of leadership activity and brings it into conversation with an incarnational ecclesiology The result is a prophetic reimagining of ecclesial leadership in terms of a relational kenotic praxis This praxis of mutuality and love is framed here in the rich language of Christian friendship The book also wrestles deeply with the embodiment of such a praxis making explicit the power behaviours typical of friendship leadership and offering constructive guidance for practitioners in the task of implementation within a complex and fractured world This book offers a new vision of the centrality of friendship to leadership of a healthy church community As such it will be of great use to scholars of practical theology ecclesiology and leadership as well as practitioners in church ministry

Multiplying Leaders in Intercultural Contexts Evelyn Hibbert, Richard Hibbert, 2023-01-31 Develop Leaders in Culturally Relevant Ways Often church planters disciplers and pastors struggle to identify grassroots leaders and develop them in their context As leaders who want to develop other leaders our task is to come alongside these leaders and learn and grow together with them Multiplying Leaders in Intercultural Contexts focuses on how to develop grassroots Christian leaders across cultures These often unrecognized leaders mostly lead small groups at the growing edges of the church They are ordinary people who faithfully share Christ amid the demands of daily life Another focus of the book is shaping the character of developers as they humbly walk beside leaders in the leaders community Using the four C s of Christian leadership Community Character Clarity and Care the authors weave together research experience and practical application to show how these characteristics are expressed across different cultures The book then discusses five principles illustrated in common settings for an intentional process that develops leaders and their communities collectively Take the next step now in developing yourself and others in the task of leading Jesus s church wherever that might be

Cross-Cultural Partnerships Mary T. Lederleitner, 2010-02-17 Cross cultural specialist Mary Lederleitner brings missiological and financial expertise to explain how global mission efforts can be funded with integrity mutuality and transparency Bringing together social science research biblical principles and on the ground examples she presents best practices for handling funding and finance

When Helping Works Michael Bamwesigye Badriaki, 2017-05-03 Today people from various parts of the world who are interested in helping fellow human beings impacted by famine epidemics wars and poverty are uniquely positioned They are interconnected due to globalization s impact which also has implications for intercultural work and global missions The ability to help people is a constructive asset which calls for the need to build friendships and partnerships across the globe Helping well depends on a number of factors yet this book looks into the impact of stereotype threat and its effects on intercultural identities the perceptions of others and performance in intercultural missions Human interactions continue to suffer due to fears anxious reactions about confirming negative stereotypes about a person s identity abilities and effectiveness in global missions Stereotype threat happens when caricatures and negative understandings about people s identities are invoked

Untold Stories Peter Rios, 2021-12-20 Despite the exponential growth of Latinx students in Christian higher education and despite professions of commitment to diversity equity and inclusion the Latinx experience in Christian colleges and universities has gone largely unstudied rendered invisible by the structures and history of colonialism and racism Untold Stories by sought after leadership consultant Peter Rios provides a groundbreaking glimpse into the complicated experiences of Latinx leaders in Christian higher education institutions along with a prophetic call to action for those who care about these institutions and the students and leaders current and future they seek to serve

The Age of Global Giving Gilles Gravelle, 2014-09-10 The dynamics of globalization and the speed of change have created greater complexity for Western missions The Age of Global Giving provides accelerated learning for donors church leaders agency leaders and mission workers As a result donors can achieve greater outcomes with deeper satisfaction in their giving and their voluntary work Ministry workers can develop improved vision values and strategies that go further in creating sustainable impact and align with the donor values of today It's a new day in the relationship between donor and recipient and it's just in time because global mission is in dire need of this kind of cooperation

Friendship Leadership Matt Messner, Rachel McMurray-Branscombe, 2018-11-29 No one can deny that friendships are powerful relationships of influence Why not strategically incorporate friendship within a philosophy of leadership People long for relational models of leadership yet few specific methodologies have been developed This book examines the friendship of God with humanity and the leadership of Jesus with his disciples to whom he declared I no longer call you servants Instead I have called you friends John 15 15 In response to this enduring example of the Divine bringing together both friendship and leadership this book presents an unexplored model of leadership for the Christian practitioner Friendship Leadership The authors of Friendship Leadership share research historical examples and their personal experiences with this leadership model as they describe both the trials and triumphs Through this process the book addresses the primary barriers a leader might experience when utilizing the Friendship Leadership model Finally the authors offer a guide for how to incorporate friendship into their leadership strengthening others as they follow the example of our great Leader The result is a transformational way of leading that nurtures relationships Ambassadors of Reconciliation Geoff Hartt, Michael A. Ortiz, Manuel Böhm, 2023-08-15 Reconciling Practice and Theology What does reconciliation have to do with the work of missions In today's conflict ridden world the concept of reconciliation has gained traction and Christian missions is being rethought The whole world cries out for holistic transformation with eternal value and God's people are called to be his ambassadors Ambassadors of Reconciliation lays the groundwork for exploring a new paradigm for missions Divided into three parts the book first establishes the theological foundations of reconciliation The second part then shows how theory and practice go hand in hand Finally the third part uses case studies to highlight the importance of understanding brokenness conflict and culture for effective ministry in reconciliation The contributors challenge readers to consider the church's role in God's mission and how every Christian can become an envoy of his restoration work They emphasize the spiritual dimension of reconciliation and offer practical guidance for effectively engaging in ministry Whether you are a missionary pastor or someone interested in promoting restoration in the world this book provides valuable insights and tools for your journey Missing Voices John E. Johnson, 2019-03-31 People are desperate for leaders who are credible those who possess a moral center and exhibit sound leadership skills Given our global realities we need strategic leaders who possess cultural intelligence and theological discernment The aim of this book is to shape such leaders Each chapter combines careful research with contributions from leaders around the world These voices bring much needed insight to leadership issues when translated and applied in different settings especially the many urban multi cultural contexts that exist today Present and emerging leaders no matter the culture or field will find this book invaluable in sustaining their call to godly leadership Scattered and Gathered Sadiri Joy Tira, Tetsunao Yamamori, 2020-07-31 The twenty first century is marked by mass migration Massive population movements of the last century have radically challenged our study and practice of mission Where the church once rallied to go out into the regions beyond Christian mission is currently required to respond and adapt to missions around As a result leaders in this field have been developing diaspora missiology to provide a missiological framework for understanding and participating in God's redemptive mission among peoples living outside their places of origin In this volume experts in diaspora missiology from across the globe analyze the development of missions to migrants and add to our understanding of the contemporary church's opportunities and responsibilities for mission amongst diaspora groups

MAP: Missionary, Anthropologist, Professor Jacky T. K. Lau, 2025-10-16

The ultimate purpose of this festschrift is to glorify God by honouring His good and faithful servant Dr Enoch Wan who keeps the Message alive and does a thorough job as God's servant. MAP Missionary Anthropologist Professor A Festschrift for Dr Enoch Wan was written by Dr Wan's former students and co-workers. It is their individual expressions of gratitude and respect to honour and recognize Professor Wan for his impact in each one's life career and ministry.

Excerpt from the Foreword of MAP Missionary Anthropologist Professor A Festschrift for Dr Enoch Wan

Breathtaking changes have characterized the life and the times of Dr Enoch Wan. Given his tumultuous life experience, it is no wonder that Professor Wan spearheaded the development of Diaspora Missiology. His cross-cultural missionary service and urban church planting work built a foundation for Wan to ably lead intercultural studies programs for theological students and institutions. Studying and living in North America with his Chinese background helps explain Wan's formulation of his Relational Paradigm that challenges conceptual Western theology. Moreover, Enoch Wan's eventful life has played out against the backdrop of numerous dramatic events of the latter half of the Twentieth Century and first quarter of the Twenty First, including war-torn China, Cold War relations, and multidirectional migrations. Divine Providence has unmistakably been at work in the life and times of Dr Enoch Wan. This beautifully written festschrift represents the triple crown of missiological scholarship. Its subject, diaspora missiology, represents the greatest mission challenge and opportunity of our time. Its object, Dr Enoch Wan, represents the epitome of Christian scholarship and discipleship. Its globally representative authors emulate their teacher in their own pioneering research, their ever-expanding body of work, and their motivating missionary passion. Thank God for the life and work of Dr Enoch Wan and for the vision and tenacity of his disciple Joy Tira to gather his brilliant friends to scatter abroad new paradigms and strategies for getting the Good News to everyone everywhere.

Douglas Birdsall, Ph.D., Honorary Chairman of the Lausanne Movement

Dr Enoch Wan's scholarship has consistently led the way in shaping the field of Intercultural Studies, especially through his innovative work in Diaspora Missiology and the Relational Paradigm. MAP Missionary Anthropologist Professor honors this legacy with intellectual rigor and heartfelt gratitude. The essays collected in this volume reflect the global breadth and theological depth of Dr Wan's influence, offering a resource that is as much a guide for future missiological engagement as it is a tribute to a life well lived. Readers will find in these pages a rich conversation at the intersection of academic excellence and missional passion.
