Egyptian writer Naguib Mahfouz refashions the classic tales of Scheherazade into a novel written in his own imaginative spellbinding style Here are genies and flying carpets Aladdin and Sinbad Ali Baba and many other familiar stories from the tradition of The One Thousand and One Nights made new by the magical pen of the acknowledged dean of Arabic letters who plumbs their depths for timeless truths Specters of World Literature Mattar Karim Mattar,2020-04-02 At the heart of this book is a spectral theory of world literature that draws on Edward Said Aamir Mufti Jacques Derrida and world systems theory to assess how the field produces local literature as an e other that haunts its universalising assimilative imperative with the force of the uncanny It takes the Middle Eastern novel as both metonym and metaphor of a spectral world literature It explores the worlding of novels from the Middle East in recent years and focusing on the pivotal sites of Middle Eastern modernity Egypt Turkey Iran argues that lost to their global production circulation and reception is their constitution in the logic of spectrality With the intention of redressing this imbalance it critically restores their engagements with the others of Middle Eastern modernity and shows through a new reading of the Middle Eastern novel that world literature is always already haunted by its others the ghosts of modernity Adrift on the Nile Naguib Mahfouz,2016-06-15 First published in 1966 Naguib Mahfouz s Adrift on the Nile is an atmospheric novel that dramatizes the rootlessness of Egypt s cosmopolitan middle class Anis Zani is a bored and drug addicted civil servant who is barely holding on to his job Every evening he hosts a gathering on a houseboat on the Nile where he and a motley group of cynical and aimless friends share a water pipe full of kif a mixture of tobacco and marijuana When a young female journalist an alarmingly serious person joins them and begins secretly documenting their activities the group s harmony starts disintegrating culminating in a midnight joyride that ends in tragedy The Beginning and the End Naguib Mahfouz,2016-06-15 First published in 1956 this is a powerful portrayal of a middle class Egyptian family confronted by material moral and spiritual problems during World War II Khan al-Khalili Naguib Mahfouz,2011-09-20 Khan al Khalili by Egyptian Nobel Laureate Naguib Mahfouz portrays the clash of old and new in an historic Cairo neighborhood as German bombs fall on the city The time is 1942 World War II is at its height and the Africa Campaign is raging along the northern coast of Egypt Against this backdrop Mahfouz s novel tells the story of the Akifs a middle class family that has taken refuge in Cairo s colorful and bustling Khan al Khalili neighborhood Believing that the German forces will never bomb such a famously religious part of the city they leave their more elegant neighborhood and seek safety among the crowded alleyways busy caf s and ancient mosques of the Khan Through the eyes of Ahmad the eldest Akif son Mahfouz presents a richly textured vision of the Khan and of a crisis that pits history against modernity and faith against secularism Fans of Midaq Alley and The Cairo Trilogy will not want to miss this engaging and sensitive portrayal of a family at the crossroads of the old world and the new Translated from the Arabic by Roger Allen Children of the Alley Naguib Mahfouz,2016-06-15 The tumultuous alley of this rich and intricate novel first published in Arabic in 1959 is inhabited by a delightful Egyptian family but is also the setting for a second hidden and more daring narrative the spiritual history of humankind The men and women of a modern Cairo neighborhood unwittingly reenact the lives of their holy ancestors from the feudal lord who disowns one son for diabolical pride and puts another to the test to the savior of a succeeding generation who frees his people from bondage This powerful novel confirms again the richness and variety of Mahfouz's storytelling and his status as the single most important writer in modern Arabic literature Newsweek The Mirage Naguib Mahfouz, 2012-02-14 A stunning example of Nobel Prize winning Egyptian author Naguib Mahfouz's psychological portraiture The Mirage is the story of an intense young man who has been so dominated by his mother that her death sets him dangerously adrift in a world he cannot manage alone Kamil Ru ba is a tortured soul who hopes that writing the story of his life will help him gain control of it Raised by a mother who fled her abusive husband and became overbearingly possessive and protective toward her young son he has long been isolated emotionally and physically Now in his twenties Kamil seeks to escape her posthumous grasp Finding and successfully courting the woman of his dreams seems to promise salvation until his ignorance of mature love and his fear and jealousy lead to tragedy The Harafish Naguib Mahfouz, 2016-06-15 Winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1988 Naguib Mahfouz is perhaps the best known living Arab writer His books have had great success in this country particularly The Cairo Trilogy Fans of the famed trilogy will be delighted with The Harafish an epic novel that chronicles the dramatic history of the al Nagi family a family that moves over many generations from the height of power and glory to the depths of decadence and decay The Harafish begins with the tale of Ashur al Nagi a man who grows from humble beginnings to become a great leader a legend among his people Generation after generation however Ashur's descendants grow further from his legendary example They lose touch with their origins as they amass and then squander large fortunes marry prostitutes when they marry at all and develop rivalries that end in death The community's upper class keeps a watchful eye on the descendants of al Nagi for fear of losing their privileges but they find no threat of another such as Ashur Not that is until the al Nagi who like his noble ancestor finds his power once again from among The Harafish or the common people Through the strength of their numbers and their passion the glory of the name of al Nagi is restored Of all Mahfouz's experiments in recent decades this is the one which owes least to western inspiration and is probably the most successful The Harafish fluently translated by Catherine Cobham makes accessible and engrossing reading The Washington Post Book World
