This volume offers insights on English language education policies in Middle Eastern and North African countries through state of the art reports giving clear assessments of current policies and future trends each expertly drafted by a specialist. Each chapter contains a general description of English education policies in the respective countries and then expands on how the local English education policies play out in practice in the education system at all levels in the curriculum in teaching and in teacher training. Essays cover issues such as the balance between English and the acquisition of the national language or the Arabic language as well as political cultural economic and technical elements that strengthen or weaken the learning of English. This volume is essential reading for researchers policy makers and teacher trainers for its invaluable insights in the role of each of the stakeholders in the implementation of policies. The TKT Course Kay Bentley, 2010

The TKT (teaching Knowledge Test) Course Kay Bentley, University of Cambridge. ESOL Examinations, 2010. This course is designed for teachers and trainee teachers preparing for the Cambridge ESOL TKT Content and Language Integrated Learning test TKT CLIL. It is ideal for both content and language teachers. Written by a CLIL expert in collaboration with Cambridge ESOL this course covers the four key areas of the test: knowledge of CLIL and principles of CLIL, lesson preparation, lesson delivery and assessment. It will also be useful for anyone seeking an introduction to CLIL theory and practice. The TKT Course CLIL Module introduces teachers to the concepts and terminology central to CLIL and provides an introduction to its main theories, approaches and activities. Teachers are then encouraged to apply these to their own teaching contexts and analyse their usefulness to their own learners. Materials and activities are available which further develop and explore the topics introduced in the course. Publisher description. Guide to English Language Teaching, 2007.
