Satellite And Dstv Decoders And Installation Services:

Drum ,2007 Public Service Broadcasting in the Age of Globalization Indrajit Banerjee,Kalinga Seneviratne,2006
Takes a scholarly perspective aimed at creating debate about the role and function of public service broadcasting at a time that it is facing a variety of threats from governments and from commercialization of broadcasting This book gives a global perspective on the state of public service broadcasting in the age of globalization Namibia Trade Directory ,2000 East London and Border ,2000 Media Law in Botswana Charles Manga Fombad,Tachilisa Badala Balule,2018-06-13 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this analysis of media law in Botswana surveys the massively altered and enlarged legal landscape traditionally encompassed in laws pertaining to freedom of expression and regulation of communications Everywhere a shift from mass media to mass self communication has put enormous pressure on traditional law models An introduction describing the main actors and salient aspects of media markets is followed by in depth analyses of print media radio and television broadcasting the Internet commercial communications political advertising concentration in media markets and media regulation Among the topics that arise for discussion are privacy cultural policy protection of minors competition policy access to digital gateways protection of journalists sources standardization and interoperability and liability of intermediaries Relevant case law is considered throughout as are various ethical codes A clear comprehensive overview of media legislation case law and doctrine presented from the practitioner s point of view this book is a valuable time saving resource for all concerned with media and communication freedom Lawyers representing parties with interests in Botswana will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative media law Media, Identity and the Public Sphere in Post-Apartheid South Africa Abebe Zegeye,Richard L. Harris,2021-11-22 The essays in this collection reveal that the social and political development of post apartheid South Africa depends to an important degree on the evolving cultural social and political identities of its diverse population and on the role of the media of mass communications in the country s new multicultural democracy The popular struggle against the country s former apartheid regime and the on going democratisation of South African politics have generated enormous creativity and inspiration as well as many contradictions and unfulfilled expectations In the present period of social transformation the legacy of the country s past is both a source of continuing conflict and tension as well as a cause for celebration and hope Post apartheid South Africa provides an important case study of social transformation and how the cultural social and political identities of a diverse population and the structure and practices of the media of mass communications affect the prospects for developing a multicultural democracy The promise and the challenge of building a multicultural democratic society in a country with a racist and violent authoritarian legacy involves people with different identities and interests learning how to respect their differences and to live together in peace It involves developing an inclusive or overarching common identity and a commitment to working together for a common destiny based on social equity and justice South Africa's media of mass communications have an important role to play in the process of unprecedented social transformation both in developing the respect for differences and the overarching identity as well as providing the public forum and the channels of communication needed for the successful development of the country's multicultural democracy In South Africa the democratization of the media must go hand in hand with the democratization of the political system in order to ensure that the majority of the citizenry participate effectively in the country's multicultural democracy Topics covered include The Struggle for African Identity Thabo Mbeki's African Renaissance Between the Local and the Global South African Languages and the Internet Shooting the East Veils and Masks Uncovering Orientalism in South African Media and Black and White in Ink Discourses of Resistance in South African Cartooning Contributors are Pal Ahluwalia Gabeba Baderoon Richard L Harris Sean Jacobs Elizabeth Le Roux Andy Mason Thembisa Mjwacu Herman Wasserman and Abebe Zegeye Tribute, 2000 The Economic Review, 1997 Brandfaces, 2007 Africa Film & TV, 2005 The Botswana Law Reports, 2007 Screen Digest, 1998 Focus on Africa, 1999 Graphic Showbiz, Routledge Handbook of African Popular Culture Grace A Musila, 2022-05-15 This handbook brings together an international team of scholars from different disciplines to reflect on African popular cultural imaginaries These imaginaries in the sense of cultural productions contexts consumers producers platforms and the material affective and discursive resources they circulate are influential in shaping African realities Collectively the chapters assembled in this handbook index the genres methods mediums questions and encounters that preoccupy producers consumers and scholars of African popular cultural forms across a range of geohistorical and temporal contexts Drawing on forms such as newspaper columns televised English Premier League football speculative arts romance fiction comedy cinema music and digital genres the contributors explore the possibilities and ambiguities unleashed by the production circulation consumption remediation and critique of these forms Among the questions explored across these essays are the freedoms and constraints of popular genres the forms of self making pleasure and harm that these imaginaries enable the negotiations of multiple moral regimes in everyday life and inevitably the fecund terrain of contradictions definitive of many popular forms which variously enable and undermine world making An authoritative scholarly resource on popular culture in Africa this handbook is an essential read for students and scholars of African culture society and media Africa Film & TV Magazine, 2003 Cable & Satellite Yearbook, 2004 Newswatch, 2004 Intermedia, 1997 Around and about Abuja Francine Rodd, 2005 This is a welcome and important contribution to the travel literature on Abuja Nigeria's official capital city Presenting the city of Abuja in a positive and endearing light the book provides details on the history people cultures landscape and languages of the city and surrounding area It provides much information on aspects of practical and social life dress food drink hotels restaurants and bars travel transport and driving in Abuja Whole sections are dedicated to the ex pat experience from finding from somewhere to live getting connected hooked up and down to business through negotiating public services and
