insights from screenwriting to revolutionise our understanding of exhibition curating Despite all genuine efforts to reach broader audiences museums persistently fear risking their credibility by becoming too popular Thus the enormous potential to learn from other storytelling forms more experienced in the field of entertainment remains essentially unexploited Museum Exhibitions and Suspense unlocks this creative potential A comparative in depth analysis of three classical Hollywood films and three cultural historical exhibitions demonstrates how dramatic suspense techniques can be applied to exhibitions These techniques must be adapted to the typical epic character of the exhibition medium By differentiating between mild and wild suspense the book provides a new understanding of the nature of suspense itself Museum Exhibitions and Suspense addresses academics and students in the fields of museum studies gallery studies and heritage studies interested in how exhibitions function and in how to achieve dramaturgical effects like suspense It also appeals to scholars and students within film studies who want to gain a deeper understanding of suspense It provides an important resource for curators and other museum practitioners and scriptwriters who intend to create stories with a wide audience appeal
