Guided Reading

Postwar America

1. How does each of the authors describe the solutions offered to deal with postwar problems?

1. Problems: Millions of returning veterans and millions of youth are finding themselves without jobs.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed the United States Housing Act, guaranteeing veterans a year's income if unemployed; benefits while job hunting; it offered unemployment benefits, guaranteed income.

2. Problems: Severe housing shortage.

Solutions offered by developers such as William Levitt	Levitt used assembly-line techniques through production houses, offering income for small residential communities called Levitts; less than $17,500.
Solutions offered by the Truman and Eisenhower administrations	The Truman and Eisenhower administrations provided financial support for urban renewal and housing, working with the private business.

3. Problems: Severe inflation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed Truman Administration recommended controls on the economy, including on prices, wages, and rents.

4. Problems: Labor unions that threaten to supply the nation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	Truman's administration said the wartime controls were no longer needed to supply the job. He instructed the federal government to advise that unions and employers to take control of the economy, for the very business would be used to them.

5. Problems: Discrimination and racial violence.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	The Truman administration wanted an anti-discrimination act that would end housing, employment, in government and public accommodations, integration of the armed forces, and end to discrimination in the federal government employment.
--	---

6. Evaluate the significance of leaders in, Eisenhower, and Paul Robeson.

Robeson	The Robeson were asked to give some speeches, give the subjects collected in a career housing shortage.
