Zimbabwe Books in Print ,1998

From Boys to Men Innocent B Hondo Chirawu,2020-06-23 From Boys to Men Part One Part Two is basically an account of some of the experiences which were encountered by the author mainly from the time he was aged twelve right up to his adulthood There is a deliberate effort by the author to shade a picture of a metamorphosis or transformation of his life as part and parcel of his journey from childhood to adulthood hence the catch title From Boys to Men Besides talking about his village life as a Nyachuru primary school going lad until that was shaken by the then Rhodesian protected village Kipi curfew life the author talked at great length about his life as a Howard secondary school boarder Unlike Part Two whereby the author quoting a lot of Bible verses is basically attempts to directly inspire motivate teach and share what he views as stubborn faith as well as consencration in the Born Again believer journey to Heaven in Part One he uses a different approach The approach in Part One although it sounds dominantly autobiographical the author once in blue moon though also utilised his creative and imaginary writing skills for the sake of emphasis or clarity of the picture of both the actual and possible phenomena in his past be it dialogues conversations or whatever incidents Obviously a detailed or graphic memories some of the conversations and some of the incidents which transpired during those past decades at times may not have been as fresh as the time they took place The author tried his best to remember all that he could remember to make his account not only a complete story but also an interesting story to read At the end of both Part One and Two of the book the author provides an opportunity for the reader to just as he himself did at the age of nineteen consider placing their faith in Jesus Christ and accept Him as their personal Lord and Saviour too

Handbook of Language and Communication: Diversity and Change Marlis Hellinger, Anne Pauwels, 2008-09-25 In line with the overall perspective of the Handbook series the focus of Vol 9 is on language related problems arising in the context of linguistic diversity and change and the contributions Applied Linguistics can offer for solutions Part I Language minorities and inequality presents situations of language contact and linguistic diversity as world wide phenomena The focus is on indigenous and immigrant linguistic minorities their lack of access to linguistic rights through language policies and the impact on their linguistic future Part II Language planning and language change focuses on the impact of colonialism imperialism globalisation and economics as factors that language policies and planning measures must account for in responding to problems deriving from language contact and linguistic diversity Part III Language variation and change in institutional contexts examines language related problems in selected institutional areas of communication education the law religion science the Internet which will often derive from socioeconomic cultural and other non linguistic asymmetries Part IV The discourse of linguistic diversity and language change analyses linguistic diversity language change and language reform as issues of public debates which are informed by different ideological positions values and attitudes e g with reference to sexism racism and political correctness The volume also contains extensive reference sections and index material

Thrive Ben Wright, Emily Clements, Martha Boyne, 2018-05-16 Martha Emily and Ben are thriving teachers In Thrive they share their personal experiences and demonstrate how you too can thrive during the tricky training year the daunting NQT year and the crucial RQT year Using their collective insights and plenty of evidence informed strategies and advice they detail how you can get to grips with the classroom basics from behaviour management and lesson planning to differentiation and providing for SEND and effectively continue your professional development This book is not just a survival manual to help teachers get through their first three years in teaching Nor is it an academic text that has been written by authors who have only a distant memory of what it takes to stand in front of a class of teenagers for the first time Thrive is something very different It gives both the aspiring and the newly qualified the support and guidance to become a thriving teacher and has been co authored by three recently qualified teachers who in this book invest their passion and practical knowledge to inspire and inform others who want to pursue enjoyable and rewarding careers in teaching Thrive is divided into three parts specifically detailing what can be expected in the training year NQT year and RQT year respectively with the authors commentary threaded throughout to demonstrate how the ideas discussed can be successfully put into practice Their accounts are also complemented by expert advice from two people who are at the very top of their profession Lianne Allison and Dr Simon Thompson who provide wider perspectives drawn from a wealth of teaching experience Forty of the book s forty six chapters begin with a checklist outlining what a developing teacher is expected to do and each chapter ends with a to do list that can be used as a quick reference point to structure the strategies implemented These to do lists are also followed by lists of suggested further reading so that readers can delve deeper into topics and fields of research that they find particularly interesting or relevant Furthermore the book offers helpful counsel on choosing the best training route as well as an in depth analysis of the change in priorities for busy teachers as they progress encouraging constant reflection outlining potential pathways and emphasising the importance of evidence based practice and how new teachers can and should incorporate this into their teaching Rooted in practical strategies and innovative ideas Thrive is the essential guide for trainee secondary school teachers and teacher trainers Undergraduate Prospectus University of London.
