

The background of the cover is a dark, textured surface. It features a collage of images: a large, stylized profile of a person's head on the left; a smaller, more realistic face in the center; and a framed portrait of a person in the upper right. There are also some abstract, patterned shapes scattered around.

Scattered Hegemonies Postmodernity And Transnational Feminist Practices Paperback 1994 Author Inderpal Grewal Caren Kaplan:

Scattered Hegemonies Inderpal Grewal, Caren Kaplan, 1994 Extrait de la couverture Those of us who take intellectual production as a site for politics badly need the kind of profound and sophisticated thinking that went into this collection The pleasures of this text are rare multiple it reminds us that critique can be an act of creation and alliance it opens up needful conversations it establishes the difference between understanding what it means to refer to the global without mistaking it for all that there is Wahneema Lubiano Princeton University Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women's autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women's autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers

Multiculturalism, Postcoloniality, and Transnational Media Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2003 Reflecting academic interests in nation race gender sexuality and other axes of identity this text gathers these concerns under the same umbrella contending that these issues must be discussed in relation to each other because communities societies and nations do not exist autonomously With Other Eyes Lisa Bloom, 1999 With Other Eyes demonstrates how feminist postcolonial and antiracist concerns can successfully be incorporated into the study of art

Keyframes: Popular Cinema and Cultural Studies Matthew Tinkcom, Amy Villarejo, 2003-08-29 Keyframes introduces the study of popular cinema of Hollywood and beyond and responds to the transformative effect of cultural studies on film studies The contributors rethink contemporary film culture using ideas and concerns from feminism queer theory race studies critiques of nationalism colonialism and post colonialism the cultural economies of fandom spectator theory and Marxism Combining a film studies focus on the film industry production and technology with a cultural studies analysis of consumption and audiences Keyframes demonstrates the breadth of approaches now available for understanding popular cinema Subjects addressed include Studying Ripley and the Alien films Pedagogy and Political Correctness in Martial Arts cinema Judy Garland fandom on the net Stardom and serial fantasies Thomas Harris's Hannibal Tom Hanks and the globalization of stars Queer Bollywood Jackie Chan and the Black connection 12 Monkeys postmodernism and urban space

Multiple Modernities Jenny Kwok Wah Lau, 2003 Multiple Modernities explores the cultural terrain of East Asia Arguing that becoming modern happens differently in different places the contributors examine popular culture most notably cinema and television to see how modernization as both a response to the West and as a process that is unique in its own right in the region operates on a mass level Included in this collection are significant explorations of popular culture in East Asia including Chinese new cinema and rock music Korean cinema Taiwanese television as well as discussions of alternative arts in general While each essay focuses on specific nations or cinemas the collected effect of reading them is to offer a comprehensive in depth picture of how popular culture in East Asia operates to both generate and reflect the immense change this significant region of the world is undergoing Contributors include Jeroen de Kloet Mitsuhiro Yoshimoto Yomota Inuhiko Frances Gateward Hector Rodriguez Dai Jaihua David Desser August Palmer Lu Szu Ping and the editor Global Infatuation Eva Hemmungs Wirtén,1998 Trafficking Women's Human Rights Julietta Hua,2011-08 How images of sex trafficking produce notions of race sex and citizenship Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie,2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith,2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Mid-century women's writing Melissa Dinsman,Megan Faragher,Ravenel Richardson,2024-07-09 The traditional narrative of the mid century 1930s 60s is that of a wave of expansion and constriction with the swelling of economic and political freedoms for women in the 1930s the cresting of women in the public sphere during the Second World War and the resulting break as employment and political opportunities for women dwindled in the 1950s when men returned home from the front But as the burgeoning field of interwar and mid century women s writing has demonstrated this narrative is in desperate need of re examination Mid century women s writing Disrupting the public private divide aims to revivify studies of female writers journalists broadcasters and public intellectuals living or working in Britain or under British rule during the mid century while also complicating extant narratives about the divisions between domesticity and politics The Career and Communities of Zaynab Fawwaz Marilyn Booth, 2021-11-05 Zaynab Fawwaz d 1914 emerged from an obscure childhood in the Shi I community of Jabal Amil now Lebanon to become a recognized writer on women s and girls aspirations and rights in 1890s Egypt This book insists on the centrality of gender as a marker of social difference to the Arabic knowledge movement then or Nahda Fawwaz published essays and engaged in debates in the Egyptian and Ottoman Arabic press published two novels and the first play known to have been composed in Arabic by a female writer This book assesses her unusual life history and political engagements including her work late in life as an informant for the Egyptian khedive A series of thematically focused chapters takes up her views on social justice marriage divorce and polygyny the gender nature debate in the context of local understandings of Darwinism education and imperialism and Islamophobia attending also to works by those to whom Fawwaz was responding Her role in the first Arabic women s magazine and her contributions to later women s magazines are part of the story too Further chapters consider her uses of history in fiction to criticize patriarchal control of young women s lives and her play as an intervention into reformist theatre and the question of women s access to public culture in 1890s Egypt Questions of desirable masculinities are central to all of these Fawwaz was also known for her massive biographical dictionary of world women In that work as in her essays Fawwaz articulated an ethics of social belonging and sociality predicated on Islamic precepts of gender justice and critical of the ways male intellectuals had used tradition to silence women and deny their aspirations Between Woman and Nation Caren Kaplan, Norma Alarcón, Minoo Moallem, 1999 An examination of nationalism and gender Gender and Genocide in Cambodia Azra Rashid, 2023-10-31 This book explores the multiplicity of women s experiences in the Cambodian genocide during the four year rule of the Khmer Rouge The dominant discourses of genocide often speak from a patriarchal and national perspective rendering women speechless and yet in this volume the female survivors of the Cambodian genocide testify not only to the specific atrocities committed during the war but also to the pre war conditions that laid the groundwork for a gender specific victimization of women and its continuation post war With the help of testimonies from Khmer women who joined the Khmer Rouge women who experienced sexual violence during the Khmer Rouge era women who fled the country and the Cham women who faced expulsion from home this book explores the diversity of women s experiences under the Khmer Rouge Survivors accounts show that a Khmer woman s experience with the Khmer Rouge was considerably different from the experience of not only a Khmer man but also a woman from a religious or ethnic minority group or a woman who chose to join the Khmer Rouge These differences are conveniently ignored in nationalist discourses in Cambodia and by western scholars of history and gender based violence and they are given even less consideration in discourses about women survivors in diaspora Instead of forcing generalization and universalization of gendered crimes of war Gender and Genocide in Cambodia employs feminist curiosity and closely examines women s experiences under the Khmer Rouge from multiple vantage points This volume is essential reading for students and scholars interested in gender and cultural studies political history and modern history Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong,2008-05-02 Study of ethnic groups and race relations have always existed in the academy primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments came about with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future Women in Music Karin Pendle,Melinda Boyd,2005-09-19 First published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an Informa company

The Cambridge Companion to Twentieth-Century British and Irish Women's Poetry Jane Dowson,2011-03-17 This Companion is aimed at students and poetry enthusiasts wanting to deepen their knowledge of some of the finest modern poets It provides new approaches to a wide range of influential women s poetry a chronology and guide to further reading

Coproducing Asia Stephanie DeBoer,2014-03-01 East Asia largely functions as a single film and media market but behind it exists a multifaceted world of coproduction crossing linguistic and national borders In Coproducing Asia Stephanie DeBoer guides readers through a rich genealogy of regional film and media coproduction all the while introducing innovative methods for their examination across decades locations and scales of production in East Asia and beyond Beginning with the present and moving back in time Coproducing Asia paints a picture of the assemblages of coproduction in East Asia and their negotiation of Cold War geopolitics and imperial legacies along with the emergence of China as a global market Addressing wide screen international romances of the early 1960s technology transfers of Cold War action cinema Sino Japanese friendship TV collaborations Asian omnibus film and video and more recent China centered blockbusters DeBoer deftly contextualizes each case study while accounting for the difficulties involved in the cultural creative and industry mediations associated with coproduction Based on rarely seen archival research as well as interviews with producers in Tokyo Hong Kong Taipei and Shanghai Coproducing Asia provides compelling frames for understanding the significance of film and media coproduction in East Asia making clear that it is not only a site of technological transformation but also an arena for competing senses of regional location and place Just Advocacy? Wendy S. Hesford,Wendy Kozol,2005 Bringing together some of the most respected scholars in the field including Inderpal Grewal Leela Fernandes Leigh Gilmore Susan Koshy Patrice McDermott and Sidonie Smith Just Advocacy sheds light on the often overlooked ways that women and children are further subjugated when political or humanitarian groups represent them solely as victims and portray the individuals that are helping them as paternal saviors Women & Activism ,1999
