Shafi i Books Shafii Fiqh:

Law and Legal Theory in Classical and Medieval Islam Wael B. Hallaq, 2022-02-23 These studies by Wael Hallaq represent an important contribution to our understanding of the neglected field of medieval Islamic law and legal thought. Spanning the period from the 8th to the 16th centuries, they draw upon a wide range of original sources to offer both fresh interpretations of those sources and a careful evaluation of contemporary scholarship. The first articles expound the interrelated issues of legal reasoning, legal logic, and the epistemology of the law. There follows a set of primarily historical studies which question a series of widely held assumptions, while the last items explore issues of legal theory and methodology. One particular topic concerns the role of Shafi'i as the master architect of Islamic legal theory, and Professor Hallaq would finally argue that this image is in fact false and a creation of later centuries. The Epistle on Legal Theory Muhammad ibn Idris al-Shafi'i, 2015-10-15 The Epistle on Legal Theory is the oldest surviving Arabic work on Islamic legal theory and the foundational document of Islamic jurisprudence. Its author Muhammad ibn Idris al-Shafi'i d. 204/820 was the eponym of the Shafi'i school of legal thought, one of the four rites in Sunni Islam. This fascinating work offers the first systematic treatment in Arabic of key issues in Islamic legal thought. These include a survey of the importance of Arabic as the language of revelation, principles of textual interpretation to be applied to the Qur'an and prophetic Traditions, techniques for harmonizing apparently contradictory precedents, legal epistemology, rules of inference, and discussions of when legal interpretation is required. The author illustrates his theoretical claims with numerous examples drawn from nearly all areas of Islamic law, including ritual law, commercial law, tort law, and criminal law. The text thus provides an important window into both Islamic law and legal thought in particular, and early Islamic intellectual history in general. This new translation by a leading scholar of al-Shafi'i and his thought makes available in lucid modern English one of the earliest complete works on Islamic law, one that is centrally important for the formation of Islamic legal thought and the Islamic legal tradition. An English-only edition. The Formation of Islamic Law Wael B. Hallaq, 2016-12-05 The fourteen studies included in this volume have been chosen to serve several purposes simultaneously. At a basic level, they aim to provide a general, if not wholly systematic, coverage of the emergence and evolution of law during the first three and a half centuries of Islam. On another level, they reflect the different and at times widely divergent scholarly approaches to this subject matter. These two levels combined will offer a useful account of the rise of Islamic law, not only for students in this field but also for Islamicists who are not specialists in matters of law, comparative legal historians, and others. At the same time, however, and as the Introduction to the work argues, this collection of distinguished contributions illustrates both the achievements and the shortcomings of paradigmatic scholarship on the formative period of Islamic law. The Distinguished Jurist's Primer Averroës, Centre for Muslim Contribution to Civilization, 1994 A critical analysis of the opinions of famous Muslim jurists and their methodologies. This is the second volume of the 12th-century work translated from the Arabic. Pioneers of Islamic
