God in Islamic Theology Mehmet Ozalp, 2023-05-15 Theology is a rational endeavor to understand everything about God from within a faith tradition and its scriptures and in response to problems posed by the conditions of a particular time and place God in Islamic Theology Tawhid in Classical Islamic Theology and Said Nursi's Risale i Nur engages and gleans classical and contemporary understandings on the central tenets of God in Islam The book makes a substantive contribution to Islamic Studies in four main ways First it grasps and justifies the use of the language and genre of theology in relation to scholarly efforts to relate Qur'anic teachings about God to human understanding The development of Islamic theology and its evolving scope are explored to produce a fresh framework in the study of Islamic theology Second it directly addresses some of the challenges facing Islam including its multi layered theological positions and how these influence its internal coherence and its external relations especially with Abrahamic faith traditions and Western philosophy generally Third presenting a new understanding of Islamic epistemology it drives to the prime essential of Islamic theology in its attempting to prove the existence oneness and relatability of God Fourth it highlights and justifies the place of Said Nursi as an informed and theologically rigorous contemporary source in Islamic theology

Southern Baptists and Muslims Charles W. Powell, 2024-08-27 Since the 9 11 terrorist attacks the largest Protestant religious group in the United States the Southern Baptist denomination has been criticized for using and fostering anti Islamic rhetoric The use of anti Islamic speech specifically by Southern Baptist leaders has become an alarming trend within the denomination The effects of Southern Baptists antipathy towards Muslims are indeed dire Charles W Powell has observed that the Southern Baptist denomination is underprepared and at times reluctant to engage with Muslims in the United States His formal interviews with Southern Baptist pastors reveal that most pastors as well as their congregants have had no personal encounter with Muslims As a result this lack of encounter has created a deficiency of narrative empathy Southern Baptists and Muslims empirically investigates the dynamics of these patterns Powell proposes that this lack of narrative empathy is the primary reason why leaders within the Southern Baptist denomination have negative perceptions of Islam and Muslims Moreover it is primarily the lack of narrative empathy that allows for anti Islamic rhetoric to flourish The purpose of this book is to shape an improved if not new perception of Islam and Muslims a perception that can foster neighborliness via narrative empathy

The Making of Salafism Henri Lauzière, 2015-11-17 Some Islamic scholars hold that Salafism is an innovative and rationalist effort at Islamic reform that emerged in the late nineteenth century but gradually disappeared in the mid twentieth Others argue Salafism is an anti innovative and antirationalist movement of Islamic purism that dates back to the medieval period yet persists today Though they contradict each other both narratives are considered authoritative making it hard for outsiders to grasp the history of the ideology and its core beliefs Introducing a third empirically based genealogy The Making of Salafism understands the concept as a recent phenomenon projected back onto the past and it sees its purist evolution as a direct result of decolonization Henri Lauzière builds his history on the transnational networks of Taqi al Din al Hilali 1894 1987 a Moroccan Salafi who with his associates participated in the development of Salafism as both a term and a movement Traveling from Rabat to Mecca from Calcutta to Berlin al Hilali interacted with high profile Salafi scholars and activists who eventually abandoned Islamic modernism in favor of a more purist approach to Islam Today Salafis tend to claim a monopoly on religious truth and freely confront other Muslims on theological and legal issues Lauzière's pathbreaking history recognizes the social forces behind this purist turn uncovering the popular origins of what has become a global phenomenon

God's Word, Spoken or Otherwise Charles M.

Ramsey, 2021-09-27 Set in British India soon after the Uprising of 1857 God's Word Spoken and Otherwise explores the controversial and ingenious ideas of one of South Asia's most influential public thinkers Sir Sayyid Ahmad Khan 1817-1898. Bringing to light previously unpublished material from his exegetical commentaries on the Bible and Qur'an, this study explores the interplay of natural and prophetic revelation from an intertextual perspective. The book provides fresh insight into Sir Sayyid's life and work and underscores both the originality of his ideas and also their continuity within a dynamic Muslim intellectual tradition.

Islam and Blackness Jonathan A.C. Brown, 2022-11-03 It is commonly claimed that Islam is antiblack even inherently bent on enslaving Black Africans. Western and African critics alike have contended that antiblack racism is in the faith's very scriptural foundations and its traditions of law, spirituality, and theology. But what is the basis for this accusation? Bestselling scholar Jonathan A.C. Brown examines Islamic scripture, law, Sufism, and history to comprehensively interrogate this claim and determine how and why it emerged. Locating its origins in conservative politics, modern Afrocentrism, and the old trope of Barbary enslavement, he explains how antiblackness arose in the Islamic world and became entangled with normative tradition. From the imagery of blackened faces in the Quran to Shariah assessments of Black women as undesirable and the assertion that Islam and Muslims are foreign to Africa, this work provides an in-depth study of the controversial knot that is Islam and Blackness and identifies authoritative voices in Islam's past that are crucial for combatting antiblack racism today.

Narratives in Conflict Matthew Aaron Bennett, 2019-11-18 Did Jesus die on the cross for our sins as the Gospels describe? Or as Muslims often contend, was Jesus rescued to heaven in order to avoid the shameful crucifixion that would be unbecoming of a messenger of God? This debate has raged for generations and has caused no shortage of frustration among those seeking to explain the central teaching of the Christian faith to those influenced by the Qur'an. What this book aims to do is uncover four barriers to understanding the biblical teaching on atonement that likely exist in the minds of our Muslim friends prior to asking about the historical reality of the Christ event. What we will discover is that the Qur'an diverges from the biblical teaching on atonement at the lexical ritual narrative and worldview levels. Each of these points of divergence presents a barrier to communication. Therefore, before arguing with our Muslim friends that Jesus died on the cross, we must provide an answer to the prior question: why would it matter? This book argues that the Letter to the Hebrews provides a particularly helpful biblical starting point for overcoming all four barriers.
