Gretel must work to support their family Despite this life of poverty they long to take part in the annual ice skating races on the frozen canal where the victors win magnificent silver skates But how can they hope to enter the races let alone win when their skates are wooden and home made After meeting the famous surgeon Dr Boekman and hearing that he might be able to cure their father Hans doesn't hesitate in offering to pay for the necessary operation although he has been saving up all his money to buy two pairs of swift steel skates As the big day looms can the children enter their respective races and win the longed for prize They are going to give a splendid prize to the best skater Yes chimed in half a dozen voices a beautiful pair of silver skates perfectly magnificent with oh such straps and silver bells and buckles HANS BRINKER, Mary Mapes

Dodge Mary Mapes Dodge,2017-04 On a bright December morning long ago two thinly clad children were kneeling upon the bank of a frozen canal in Holland The sun had not yet appeared but the gray sky was parted near the horizon and its edges shone crimson with the coming day Most of the good Hollanders were enjoying a placid morning nap Even Mynheer von Stoppelnoze that worthy old Dutchman was still slumbering in beautiful repose Now and then some peasant woman poising a well filled basket upon her head came skimming over the glassy surface of the canal or a lusty boy skating to his day's work in the town cast a good natured grimace toward the shivering pair as he flew along Meanwhile with many a vigorous puff and pull the brother and sister for such they were seemed to be fastening something to their feet not skates certainly but clumsy pieces of wood narrowed and smoothed at their lower edge and pierced with holes through which were threaded strings of rawhide These queer looking affairs had been made by the boy Hans His mother was a poor peasant woman too poor even to think of such a thing as buying skates for her little ones Rough as these were they had afforded the children many a happy hour upon the ice And now as with cold red fingers our young Hollanders tugged at the strings their solemn faces bending closely over their knees no vision of impossible iron runners came to dull the satisfaction glowing within In a moment the boy arose and with a pompous swing of the arms and a careless Come on Gretel glided easily across the canal Ah Hans called his sister plaintively this foot is not well yet The strings hurt me on last market day and now I cannot bear them tied in the same place Tie them higher up then answered Hans as without looking at her he performed a wonderful cat s cradle step on the ice How can I The string is too short Giving vent to a good natured Dutch whistle the English of which was that girls were troublesome creatures he steered toward her You are foolish to wear such shoes Gretel when you have a stout leather pair Your klompen would be better than these Why Hans Do you forget The father threw my beautiful new shoes in the fire Before I knew what he had done they were all curled up in the midst o the burning peat I can skate with these but not with my wooden ones Be careful now Hans had taken a string from his pocket Humming a tune as he knelt beside her he proceeded to fasten Gretel s skate with all the force of his strong young arm Oh oh she cried in real pain With an impatient jerk Hans unwound the string He would have cast it on the ground in true big brother style had he not just then spied a tear trickling down his sister s cheek I ll fix it never fear he said with sudden tenderness but we must be quick The mother will need us soon Then he glanced inquiringly about him first at the ground next at some bare willow branches above his head and finally at the sky now gorgeous with streaks of blue crimson and gold Finding nothing in any of these localities to meet his need his eye suddenly brightened as with the air of a fellow who knew what he was about he took off his cap and removing the tattered lining adjusted it in a smooth pad over the top of Gretel s worn out shoe Now he cried triumphantly at the same time arranging the strings as briskly as his benumbed fingers would allow can you bear some pulling Gretel drew up her lips as if to say Hurt away but made no further response In another moment they were all laughing together as hand in hand they flew along the canal never thinking whether the ice would bear them or not for in Holland ice is generally an all winter affair It settles itself upon the water in a determined kind of way and so far from growing thin and uncertain every time the sun is a little severe upon it it gathers its forces day by day and flashes defiance to every beam Hans Brinker; Mary Mapes Dodge,1917 A Dutch brother and sister work toward two goals finding the doctor who can restore their father s memory and winning the competition for the silver skates Hans Brinker; Or, the Silver Skates - Primary Source Edition Mary Mapes Dodge,2013-10 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections
