Muslim Mobilities, 2024-12-30 A translocal ethnography about Tajik migrants engagement in projects of reform Islamic life in Dubai the book maps Gulf migration onto larger geographies of Muslim mobility piety and belonging across places in Eurasia the Gulf and wider Middle East Spatializing the intersection of migration work and Muslim piety the book examines how formations of ethical subjectivity are closely tied to the multiple places that shape migrants travel itineraries and related experiences of dwelling there and crossing them Situating these spatial biographies in broader transregional fields of Muslim mobility connectedness and placemaking the book explores why in the early 2000s young Tajik Muslims pursued spiritual social and moral progress in the booming religious economy of Dubai s fur coat business sector The book s spatial approach works threefold With a focus on abroad it interrogates the interplay of spatial perceptions of the good elsewhere with migrants placemaking there A second focus is on how multiplicity and flexibility of migrant situatedness spatially temporally socially in Persianate Russophone and Arab culturescapes shape mobile pious subjectivities and cosmopolitan belongings The book also develops a situated Tajik perspective on Gulf migration that grounds in circulating spatial imaginaries Muslim knowledge repertoires as well as in individual travel modes paths and migrant experiences resulting from precarious livelihoods and discriminating migrant regimes Linking anthropology with new area studies approaches this book seeks to enhance multidisciplinary scholarship about the complex relation between religion migration and mobile subjectivity in both Central Asian and Gulf studies and in the anthropology of Islam

20 Years of HIV in Bangladesh, 2009 Queer Korea Todd A. Henry, 2020-02-21 Since the end of the nineteenth century the Korean people have faced successive waves of foreign domination authoritarian regimes forced dispersal and divided development Throughout these turbulent times queer Koreans were ignored minimized and erased in narratives of their modern nation East Asia and the wider world This interdisciplinary volume challenges such marginalization through critical analyses of non normative sexuality and gender variance Considering both personal and collective forces contributors extend individualized notions of queer neoliberalism beyond those typically set in Western queer theory Along the way they recount a range of illuminating topics from shamanic rituals during the colonial era and B grade comedy films under Cold War dictatorship to toxic masculinity in today s South Korean military and transgender confrontations with the resident registration system More broadly Queer Korea offers readers new ways of understanding the limits and possibilities of human liberation under exclusionary conditions of modernity in Asia and beyond Contributors Pei Jean Chen John Song Pae Cho Chung kang Kim Timothy Gitzen Todd A Henry Meroose Hwang Ruin Layoung Shin Shin ae Ha John Whittier Treat Islam Beyond the Violent Jihadis Ziauddin Sardar, 2016-04-07 Islam has been corrupted A virulent strain of the religion manifests itself in bloodthirsty mutations such as Boko Haram in Nigeria and the terrifying spectre of ISIS But behind the atrocities and turmoil lie many different versions and visions of Islam each struggling to survive in a rapidly changing world Ziauddin Sardar with inimitable wit and intelligence chronicles the diversity and richness of Islam and in doing so answers a host of frequently asked questions Is Islam inherently violent and misogynistic Why do young men and women choose to join the jihadi caliphate What part should Muhammad s teachings play in our own times Islam Beyond the Violent Jihadis argues for a pluralistic and reflective religion with a distinguished past but one that appears to have been wrenched from its noble origins by rigid fundamentalism In examining how we have nourished the rise of Islamic jihadi groups Sardar urges us all to work together to preserve the sanity of our world

Mobilities, Boundaries, and Travelling Ideas Manja Stephan-Emmrich, Philipp Schröder, 2018-04-17 This collection brings together a variety of anthropological historical and sociological case studies from Central Asia and the Caucasus to examine the concept of translocality The chapters scrutinize the capacity of translocality to describe in new ways the multiple mobilities exchange practices and globalizing processes that link places people and institutions in Central Asia and the Caucasus with others in Russia China and the United Arab Emirates Illuminating translocality as a productive concept for studying cross regional connectivities and networks this volume is an important contribution to a lively field of academic discourse Following new directions in Area Studies the chapters aim to overcome territorial containers such as the nation state or local community and instead emphasize the significance of processes of translation and negotiation for understanding how meaningful localities emerge beyond conventional boundaries Structured by the four themes crossing boundaries travelling ideas social and economic movements and pious endeavours this volume proposes three conceptual approaches to translocality firstly to trace how it is embodied narrated virtualized or institutionalized within or in reference to physical or imagined localities secondly to understand locality as a relational concept rather than a geographically bounded unit and thirdly to consider cross border traders travelling students business people and refugees as examples of non elite mobilities that provide alternative ways to think about what global means today Mobilities Boundaries and Travelling Ideas will be of interest to students and scholars of the anthropology history and sociology of Central Asia and the Caucasus as well as for those interested in new approaches to Area Studies

A Geography of Jihad Stephanie Zehnle, 2020-01-20 This book addresses the Jihad movement that created the largest African state of the 19th century the Sokoto Caliphate existing for 99 years from 1804 until its military defeat by European colonial troops in 1903 The author carves out the entanglements of jihadist ideology and warfare with geographical concepts at Africa s periphery of the Islamic world geographical knowledge about the boundary between the Land of Islam and the Land of War the pre colonial construction of the Muslim and the unbeliever and the transfer of ideas between political elites and mobile actors traders pilgrims slaves soldiers whose reports helped shape new definitions of the African frontier of Islam Research for this book is based on the study of a very wide range of Arabic and West African Hausa Fulfulde manuscripts Their policies reveal the persistent reciprocity of jihadist warfare and territorial statehood of Africa and the Middle East Stephanie Zehnle is Assistant Professor JProf of Extra European History at Kiel University Christian Albrechts Universit t Her work on African and trans continental history includes research on the history of Islam human animal relations and comics in Africa Learning Bodies Julia Coffey, Shelley Budgeon, Helen Cahill, 2016-02-03 Learning Bodies addresses the lack of attention paid to the body in youth and childhood studies Whilst a significant range of work on this area has explored gender class race and ethnicity and sexualities all of which have bodily dimensions the body is generally studied indirectly rather than being the central focus This collection of papers brings together a scholarly range of international interdisciplinary work on youth with a specific focus on the body The authors engage with conceptual empirical and pedagogical approaches which counteract perspectives that view young people s bodies primarily as problems to be managed or as sites of risk or deviance The authors demonstrate that a focus on the body allows us to explore a range of additional dimensions in seeking to understand the experiences of young people The research is situated across a range of sites in Australia North America Britain Canada Asia and Africa drawing on a range of disciplines including sociology education and cultural studies in the process This collection aims to demonstrate theoretically empirically and pedagogically the implications that emerge from a reframed approach to understanding children and youth by focusing on the body and embodiment Keywords for Gender and Sexuality Studies Kyla Wazana Tompkins, The Keywords Feminist Editorial Collective, 2021-11-21 This book deepens analyses of the relationships among race gender sexuality nation ability and political economy by foregrounding justice oriented intersectional movements and scholarship including Black Indigenous and women of color feminisms transnational feminisms queer of color critique trans disability and fat studies feminist science studies and critiques of the state law and prisons that emerge from within queer and women of color justice movements
