Dolan,2010-11-24

Marriage is often described as a melding of two people into one But what or who must be lost fragmented or buried in that process We have inherited a model of marriage so flawed Frances E Dolan contends that its logical consequence is conflict Dolan ranges over sixteenth and seventeenth century Puritan advice literature sensational accounts of true crime and late twentieth century marriage manuals and films about battered women who kill their abusers She reads the inevitable Taming of the Shrew against William Byrd s diary of life on his Virginia plantation Noel Coward s Private Lives and Barbara Ehrenreich s assessment in Nickel and Dimed of the relationship between marriage and housework She traces the connections between Phillippa Gregory s best selling novel The Other Boleyn Girl and documents about Anne Boleyn s fatal marriage and her daughter Elizabeth I s much debated virginity By contrasting depictions of marriage in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and our own time she shows that the early modern apprehension of marriage as an economy of scarcity continues to haunt the present in the form of a conceptual structure that can accommodate only one fully developed person When two fractious individuals assert their conflicting wills resolution can be achieved only when one spouse absorbs subordinates or eliminates the other In an era when marriage remains hotly contested this book draws our attention to one of the histories that bears on the present a history in which marriage promises both intimate connection and fierce conflict both companionship and competition

From Superwomen to Domestic Goddesses Natasha Campo,2009 This book examines the rise and fall of feminism in the public imagination in the last twenty years and explains why feminism failed me has become the catch cry of a generation Today many women turn their back on feminism because they feel betrayed by the promises of feminism Yet during the 1980s the popular ideal of the Superwoman offered a source of empowerment and pride for women and equality with men even having it all seemed possible Through a close reading of popular culture sources this book shows how women's engagement with feminism has shifted over time and considers its future as a social movement

From Catharine Beecher to Martha Stewart Sarah A. Leavitt,2003-04-03 Today's domestic advice writers women such as Martha Stewart Cheryl Mendelson and B Smith are part of a long tradition notes Sarah Leavitt Their success rests on a legacy of literature that has focused on the home as an expression of ideals Here Leavitt crafts a fascinating genealogy of domestic advice based on her readings of hundreds of manuals spanning 150 years of history Over the years domestic advisors have educated women about everything from modernism and morality to sanitation and design Their writings helped create the idealized vision of home held by so many Americans Leavitt says Investigating cultural themes in domestic advice written since the mid nineteenth century she demonstrates that these works which found meaning in kitchen counters parlor rugs and bric a brac have held the interest of readers despite vast changes in women's roles and opportunities Domestic advice manuals have always been the stuff of fantasy argues Leavitt demonstrating cultural ideals rather than cultural realities But these rich sources reveal how women understood the connection between their homes and the larger world At its most fundamental level the true domestic fantasy

Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05
 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young's novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel
