Four Arguments For The Elimination Of Television:

Four Arguments for the Elimination of Television Jerry Mander, 2013-08-13 Persuasive interesting and unusual Kirkus Reviews A total departure from previous writing about television this book is the first ever to advocate that the medium is not reformable Its problems are inherent in the technology itself and are so dangerous to personal health and sanity to the environment and to democratic processes that TV ought to be eliminated forever Weaving personal experiences with meticulous research the author ranges widely over aspects of television that have rarely been examined and never before joined together allowing an entirely new frightening image to emerge The idea that all technologies are neutral benign instruments that can be used well or badly is thrown open to profound doubt Speaking of TV reform is in the words of the author as absurd as speaking of the reform of a technology such as guns Praise for the work of Jerry Mander Lively provocative Publishers Weekly A skilled writer Kirkus Reviews starred review
