Excelling in Sport Psychology Alison Pope-Rhodus, Sara Robinson, Sean Fitzpatrick, 2017-10-04 Written for graduate students and early professionals who are conducting applied sport psychology work for the first time Excelling in Sport Psychology is a guide for planning preparing and executing this work Each chapter addresses a critical component of the internship experience such as selecting a site for an internship preparing to begin the work evaluating the completed work and marketing oneself throughout one's early career The diverse experiences of the various authors provide a range of viewpoints for trainees to consider and apply to their growth as sport psychology or mental skills professionals. The text is written in a practical manner with suggestions and questions that will drive this personal and professional growth. Each chapter also includes a personal account from a current student or recent graduate about their experience in that area. This book will appeal to students in academic sport psychology programs seeking additional support and guidance about the internship process as well as post graduates who did not have an internship component to their program. Supervisors will benefit from reading the book as it highlights ways to work with trainees. Drawn from the experience of the applied Sport Psychology department at John F Kennedy University which has helped students set up internships, have successful experiences and attain jobs for over 25 years, this book can provide a model for training programs approaching the challenges of fieldwork.

The Developing Practitioner Michael Helge Rønnestad, Thomas M. Skovholt, 2013. First Published in 2013. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informa company.

The School Psychology Internship Daniel S. Newman, 2019-08-09. Dr Newman has used his many years of experience working with interns and field supervisors to create this comprehensive guide to the school psychology internship. The second edition of this text includes updated research and tools including a new job interview video and new templates for developing a cover letter, CV, and remediation plan. Expanded content includes brand new chapters focused on applying for doctoral internships through the APPIC Match process and successfully transitioning from the internship into the early career. Students and internship supervisors alike will find this easy to use guide helpful in alleviating anxiety around common internship concerns. Emphasis is placed on the idea that the internship year is a dynamic and formative experience, not a static event, and that interns and supervisors both must be proactive planners, coordinators, and shapers of the experience. Interns and supervisors will find this guide to be a critical support for planning and enacting a high quality school psychology internship.
