Migration and Integration in Singapore Yap Mui Teng, Gillian Koh, Debbie Soon, 2014-10-30 Between 2000 and 2010 Singapore witnessed a huge influx of foreign migrants. The proportion of permanent residents in the total population increased from 7% to 11% while the share of non resident foreigners has risen from 19% to 25%. This was as much the result of the spontaneous movement of labour to economic opportunities as it was of active policy direction by the Singapore government. The social impact both beneficial and disruptive of this movement was felt at all levels of society and brought other attending public policy issues to the fore. Taking a multi disciplinary approach with a focus on policy and practice this book examines the social economic and political issues that have arisen with the influx of foreigners in Singapore since the turn of the 21st century. Drawing on empirical research it documents the impact of increasing levels of immigration and provides an analysis of the longer term implications of these trends with each chapter covering a different aspect of socio cultural political or economic outcome arising from intercultural contact and adaptation. The contributors also provide policy suggestions to ensure Singapore continues to be a harmonious nation and a cosmopolitan and vibrant global city. Migration and Integration in Singapore: Policies and Practice will appeal to students and scholars of Southeast Asian studies, migration and social policy as well as to practitioners and policy makers with an interest in migration in the region.

General Paper Methodology Teachers' Training College (Singapore), 1970 International Mobility and Educational Desire Peidong Yang, 2016-06-22 This book examines the Singapore government's controversial practice of recruiting students from China and granting them full scholarships on the condition of a service bond. It offers detailed ethnographic accounts of the Chinese foreign talent students' educational and cross cultural experiences in Singapore to illustrate the complex intersections between international mobility and educational desire. In doing so the book presents contemporary Singapore society's concerns over immigration and cross cultural encounters from a unique perspective.

Infancy to IC Theophilus Huang, 2025-08-04 Congratulations to us we are now parents! Just like many others before us we scour the Internet and bookshops hoping to find a guide that can tell us how to be good parents. Well at the very least we should avoid messing up our parental duties. There is a problem we are based in Singapore. While this is a great place to live and work it's quite a different story for the kids. Singapore has been consistently ranked among the top countries in the world by the OECD's Program for International Student Assessment (PISA) for some time. If parenting is difficult enough as it is imagine doing it in a country with the smartest kids in the world which is what PISA is telling us. This book describes our journey as parents in Singapore from infancy to pre school to the Gifted Education Program to Raffles Institution to getting offers from top universities: Imperial College, University College NUS, College Nanyang, Technological University, Waseda University among others. It is my hope that this journey will provide a guideline to other parents so that they can do the same or better.
